1928 MIRROR
BATES COLLEGE
Lewiston, Maine

Editor-in-Chief, HERBERT W. OVIATT, JR.
Business Manager, HOWARD S. WHITE

Dedication

To our beloved Professor, Frank Dean Tubbs, who has devoted his life to the searching out of truth and to the moulding of sterling character—both in himself and in those who have had the good fortune to have become intimately acquainted with him,—we lovingly dedicate the 1928 Mirror.

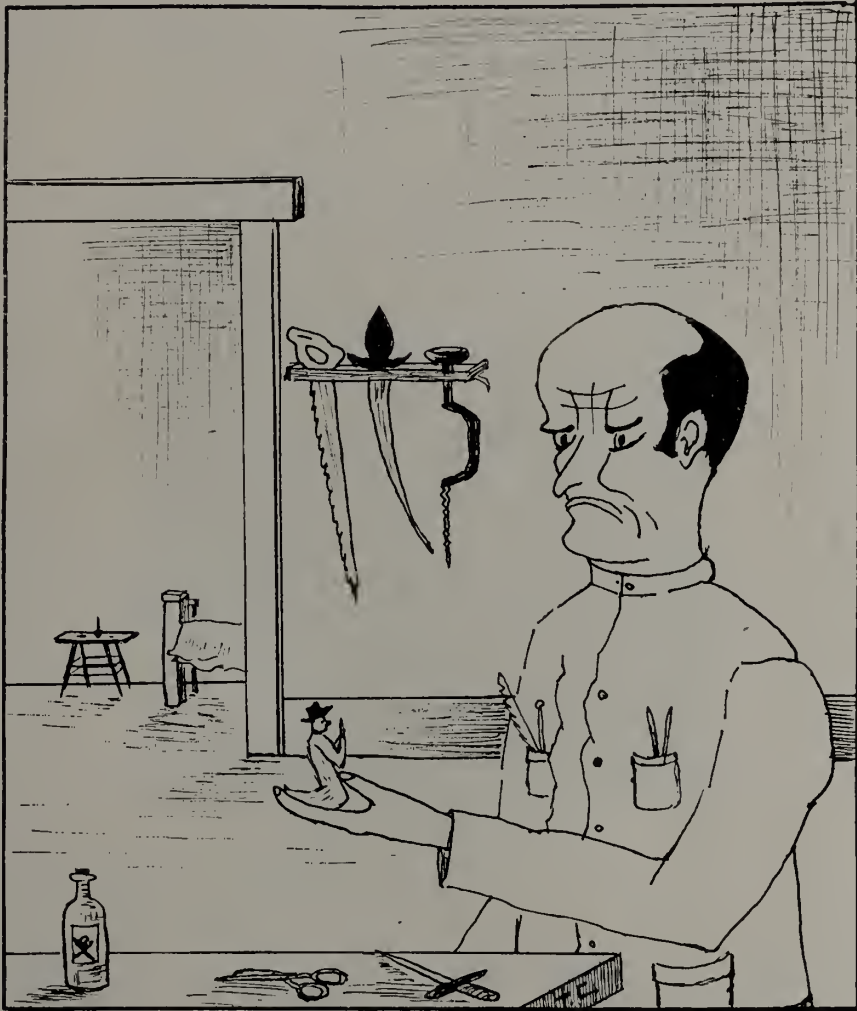

A fearless thinker,—the possessor of a mind, unfettered by human prejudice and admitting no law but that of absolute Truth. For twenty-one years Dr. Tubbs' lectures, filled with the wisdom of a rich and active experience, have served as a constant source of inspiration and kindly guidance to Bates men and women; and to show in some small degree the deep respect and sincere admiration that it has for the "beloved" professor who through his splendid example has encouraged all of us who have known him to "fight the good fight," we are proud to dedicate our Class Book to a man who dared to think!

Born at Oakland, Maine, September 16, 1887; Edward Little High School, Auburn, Maine; Bates, 1910; B.S., Simmons, 1912; Cataloguer at University of Chicago Library, 1912-13; Williams College Library, 1913-14; Assistant Librarian, Auburn Public Library, 1914-19; Teacher of French and English, Auburn, 1919-20; Assistant Coram Library at Bates since 1921.

DORA ETTA ROBERTS, A.B.

"Ma"

Her Booke: "The Thunderbolt"

"Of course you will look after the financial end of it."

Born at Milton, N. H.; Bates, 1895; Taught in Secondary Schools, 1895-1905; Massachusetts General Hospital, 1905-14; Simmons, Institutional Management Course, 1915; Home for Aged Women, Boston, 1915-23; Director of Residences for Women at Bates since 1923.

NORMAN ERNEST ROSS, B.S.

"Norm"

His Booke: "An Enemy of the People"

"The gym will be closed so we can varnish the track."

Born at Kennebunkport, Maine, 1898; Biddeford High School, 1917; Bates, 1922; Instructor in Science and Coach of Athletics, Brandon, Vt., 1922-24; Assistant Bursar at Bates since 1924.

ELSIE AGNES BADGER, R.N.

Her Booke: "When the Devil Was Sick"

Born at Phillips, Maine; Phillips High School; Practical Nursing, Three Years; Central Maine Hospital, R.N., 1921; Private Nurse; Nurse at Bates College since 1924.

DORIS P. GOODWIN

Her Booke: "A Woman of No Importance"

"Now Howard says—"

Born, South Dorset, Vermont; Fitchburg High School, 1918; Union Machine Co., Private Secretary, American Woolen Co.; Graduate of Simmons College, 1927; Director of Bates College Commons, 1927-28.

SENIORS

HAROLD WENDELL ABBOTT, B.S.

"Bill", "The Brute"

Auburn, Maine

Born August 20, 1905; Jordan High School, 1924; Orphic Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Macfarlane Club 3, 4; Secretary, Outing Club 4; Chairman of Ivy Hop 3; Chairman of Carnival Hop 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4.

In days to come we will recall the ease
With which his fingers flew across the keys;
A versatile musician, and the kind
Of man who, in his work, success will find.
Then, too, coeducation suits him well;—
The dire effects of which,—just time will tell!

HELEN ELIZABETH ABBOTT, A.B.

Auburn, Maine

Born April 27, 1907; Edward Little High School, 1924; Deutscher Verein 4; Publishing Board 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Entre Nous 1; Alethea 2, 3; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; House Council 4; W. A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Soccer 3; Hiking 3; Volley Ball 3; Basketball 3; Gym Meet 1, 2, 3.

Our Helen is a lady fair,
With saucy nose and lovely hair,—
Quite pleasant to behold.
And though she seems the "distant" kind
A "sunny disposish" we find
That's worth its weight in gold.

BENJAMIN ABROMSON, B.S.

"Ben"

Lewiston, Maine

Born April 17, 1907; Jordan High School; Transfer from Boston University; French Club 4.

If it is true still waters run most deep,
The premiere honors Ben would surely reap.
He never was the type that men call "loud";
And seldom did he travel with the crowd;
But always he pursued a constant course
And one the Profs would readily endorse.

GILBERT EDWIN ADAMS, B.S.

"Babe"

Dalton, Massachusetts

Born January 26, 1905; Dalton High School; Varsity Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; Football 2, 3, 4, Captain 4; Track Squad 2, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

The football captain now deserves our gaze;
A genial type of chap in many ways.
He has a nod or smile for everyone,
And some good-nature left when day is done.
But though at times he's wont to moralize,
We think 'tis but a superficial guise.

JOHN BRUCE ALEXANDER, A.B.

"Alex"

Dresden, Maine

Born September 23, 1898; North Haven High School; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4, Cabinet Member 3, President 4; Phil-Hellenic 2, 3, 4; Cosmos Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Behold! the classic shade appears once more,
And stalks upon our campus as of yore.
Its Herculean bulk seems most severe;
But tender smiles and words dispel our fear.
'Tis very like a lamb in lion's guise;—
Talks less than others, but is far more wise.

MERVIN LLOYD AMES, A.B.

Springvale, Maine

World Debater 4; Y. M. C. A.; Outing Club.

Newcomer though this gentleman may be
Upon our roll of Senior sanctity,
He seems quite anxious to attach the fame
Of being a debater to his name;
And so we find him travelling with the rest
Around the world—debating with the best.

GLENN CARLETON ANDREWS, B.S.

"Andy"

Norway, Maine

Born August 6, 1906; Norway High School; Jordan Scientific 3, 4, Secretary 4; President of John Bertram Hall 4, Secretary 3; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4

Far from the madding campus life he dwells
In one of good old J. B.'s spacious cells.
We find that chemistry is quite his forte,
And basketball he calls his favorite sport.
And though he seems a silent chap to some,
We think he's dreaming dreams of days to come.

PHILIP ALFRED ANNAS, B.S.

"Phil"

Presque Isle, Maine

Born 1904; Presque Isle High School; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

He is a very busy man,
And spends each moment that he can
Within the doors of Rand.
A faithful swain is he, indeed,
And one we think, who soon will need
To buy the "golden hand".

JACOB JOHN ARENSTAM. B.S.

"Jake"

Lewiston, Maine

Jordan High School; Jordan Scientific 3, 4; Deutscher Verein 4; Macfarlane Club 4; Orphic Society 4.

A little tot, but very bright,
Who has become a proselyte
Of Science and its creed.
His chem he knows from "A" to "Z",
And when he gets his Bates degree
Renown will be his meed.

EDNAH ASH. A.B.

"Eddie"

Lisbon, New Hampshire

Born May 19, 1906; Lishon High School; Entre Nous 1; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; New Hampshire Club 1, 2, 3, Vice-President 3; W. A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Sodalitas Latina 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Ramsdell Scientific 1, 2, 3, 4, Secretary 3, 4; Hiking 1, 2, 3; Soccer 3; Basketball 2, 4; Winter Sports 1; Track 1, 2.

A gentle maid from Lishon-town,—
Of wistful, modest mien,
Whose passing, like the breath of peace
Remolded us. Serene
Her disposition,—soft her speech;—
To anger slow. Success she'll reach.

BARBARA SHERRARD AUSTIN. A.B.

"Babs"

Bath, Maine

Born April 13, 1906; Morse High School; Entre Nous 1; French Club 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4, Cabinet 3, Treasurer 4; Ramsdell Scientific 4; Class Secretary 4; W. A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Captain of Hiking 3.

A popular and brilliant lass,
Whose wealth of "Zoo" terms does surpass
Her Prof's most high desire.
To those she knows she's full of fun,
And always ready with a pun;—
Her talent we admire.

ARLINE DANA BICKFORD. A.B.

"Ene"

Auburn, Maine

Born March 8, 1907; Edward Little High School; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Lambda Alpha 2, 3, 4; "B"; Entre Nous 1; Hockey 1; Volley Ball 1, 2, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Soccer 1, 2; Archery 3; Hiking 1, 2, 3.

It's Arlene's spontaneity
That lends an air of gaiety
To classes that are dry.
She has the Prof upon the run
Before the class is well begun
With comments shrewd and sly.

CATHERINE FLORA BICKFORD, A.B.

"Kay"

Auburn, Maine

Born February 2, 1907; Edward Little High School; Entre Nous 1; Cosmos Club 3, 4; Le Cercle Francais 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Lambda Alpha 2, 3, 4; "B" Girls 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Hockey 1, 2, 3; Soccer 1, 2, 3, Captain 2; Volley Ball 2, 3.

She's very small, but mercy me!—
 She fairly shines with brilliancy,
 And reaps a wealth of A-s.
 In French they say, she knows her "stuff";
 She never has to use a bluff;
 She surely merits praise.

RALPH MORGAN BLAGDEN, A.B.

"Rafe", "Blag"

Auburn, Maine

Born 1905; Edward Little High School; Spofford Club 2, 3, 4, President 4; President of Freshman Debating Council; Debating Team; Vice-President of Debating Council; Sophomore Prize Speaking; Junior Oration 3; Manager of The Bobcat.

Who speaks with such a silver tone?
 Whose words so eloquently sown?
 Who gave us more to think of, when
 The spirit moved? And which of men
 Will Fortune favor more than he
 Whom she has dowered so brilliantly?

ENA ANITA MARIE BOLDUC, A.B.

Lewiston, Maine

Born April 19, 1906; Edward Little High School; Orphic Society 1, 2, 3, 4, Secretary 2; Macfarlane Club 4; Entre Nous 1; Le Cercle Francais 3, 4; Lambda Alpha 2, 3, 4; Assistant in French 4.

A versatile and charming demoiselle
 Whose many virtues our respect impel.
 She plays upon the flute with consummate ease.
 And all her mannerisms seem to please.
 She is not coy,—although she's no coquette;—
 Ingenuous is more the epithet!

LUCY ELIZABETH BRYANT, A.B.

"Lou", "Peg"

Lewiston, Maine

Born January 11, 1905; Jordan High School; Entre Nous 1; "B" Girls 3, 4; Lambda Alpha 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Hockey 1, 2; Volley Ball 1, 2; Basketball 2, 3; Soccer 1, 2, 3; Gym Meet 1, 2, 3; Archery 3; Hiking 3; Y. W. C. A. Town Girls' Committee.

When down the street our Lucy goes,
 We marvel at her classy clothes,
 The regal air, the tilted nose.
 And when we look again we see
 Eyes that are full of gaiety,—
 Smiles as jolly as well could be.

DOROTHY PEARLE BUMPUS, A.B.

"Dot"

Auburn, Maine

Born February 19, 1907; Edward Little High School; Lambda Alpha 2, 3, 4; Phil-Hellenic 3, 4; Deutscher Verein 4; "B" Girls 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Entre Nous 1; Hockey 1, 2; Volley Ball 1, 2, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Soccer 1, 2, 3; Archery 3; Hiking 1, 2, 3, 4; Volley Ball Captain 3.

Oh, this co-ed, Dolly Bumpus,
 She could stir up quite a rumpus
 In chapel or Deutscher Verein;
 But the lass is very gallant
 So conceals her lusty talent
 To dissipate solemnity so fine.

NAOMI DAVIDSON BURDON, A.B.

"Peg"

Gilbertville, Massachusetts

Born January 12, 1907; Hardwick High School; Entre Nous 1; Alethea 2, 3; Lambda Alpha 2, 3; Student Government 2; Y. W. C. A. Committee 2; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Exhibition.

Here's to the girl with eyes of blue,
 Chattering gaily,—giggling too!
 In chapel, dorm, down in the town,
 Tending the babes of Brother McGown.
 She'll laugh and talk, and yet, you know,
 As Prof's assistant she's not so slow.

JAMES MICHAEL BURKE, B.S.

"Jim"

Ipswich, Massachusetts

Born June 26, 1904; Manning High School; Y. M. C. A. 1, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. M. Cabinet 4; Varsity Club 4; Bobcat Board 3; Varsity Cross-Country 4; Varsity Hockey 4; Cross-Country Squad 1, 2, 3; Track Squad 3, 4; Hockey Squad 1, 2, 3.

A gentleman in thought and deed,
 With Christian living as his creed;
 An earnest worker, constant friend,
 A son of Bates until the end.
 He taught us courage, peace in work,—
 Success attend you, Jimmy Burke!

ANNETTE ROSAMOND CALLAGHAN, A.B.

"Bobby"

Kezar Falls, Maine

Born February 17, 1907; Brunswick High School; Spofford Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Deutscher Verein; W. A. A. Board; Basketball 3, 4. Captain 3; Hockey 1, 4; Tennis 3; Manager Track 3; Manager of Baseball 4; Y. W. Finance Committee 2; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4. Director 2; Mirror Board 4; Chief Mourner for the Bobcat.

Oh lady fair,—what say your eyes
 So brown, and deep, and wondrous wise?
 They seem to challenge me.
 In depths beneath your lighter mood
 Sweet silent thoughts are wont to brood:
 Why don't you set them free?

MARION ESTHER CARLL, A.B.

"Bunny"

Waterboro, Maine

Born January 24, 1907; Waterboro and Alfred High Schools; Entre Nous 1; Y. W. C. A.; W. A. A.; Student Government; Latin Club; Cheer Leader; Glee Club; Choir; Outing Club Director 3; Winner Freshman Prize Speaking; Sophomore Prize Speaking; Ivy Day Speaker; Junior Exhibition; "B"; Numerals; Macfarlane; Honor Student; Latin Assistant; Volley Ball 1, 2, 3; Hockey 3; Soccer 1, 2, 3; Winter Sports 2; Hiking 1, 2, 3.

How difficult it is to find
Sincerity of heart and mind
Incorporate in one!
But Bunny seems to be the kind,—
The precious metal, all refined,
Whose worth's surpassed by none.

DAGMAR HELENA CARLSON, A.B.

"Daggic"

New Britain, Connecticut

Born February 24, 1906; New Britain High School; 4A Players; Spofford Club, Vice-President 4; French Club; Personal Editor of Student 2, Literary Editor 3; Chase Dance Committee 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; French Play 4; Honor Work 4; Assistant in Education; Mirror Board 4.

A dream of what our wives should be,
So dainty, lovely, graceful, she,—
Whose smile is like an April sun
Before the day has well begun.
We men all love her; and we women,—well,
She is too sweet, if we must tell!

DOROTHY CARPENTER, A.B.

"Dot", "Pat"

Foxboro, Massachusetts

Born March 18, 1907; Foxboro High School; A. A. Representative 1; Secretary W. A. A. 2; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Director 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Entre Nous 1; Alctha 3, 4.

A lovely little wispy thing,—
The very joy and breath of Spring
That thrills us through and through.
Her friendship in our hearts we hold
A dearer treasure, far, than gold
Because we know she's true!

AUBURN JEWETT CARR, A.B.

"Mephisto"

Hardwick, Vermont

Born April 14, 1905; Hardwick Academy; Politics Club 4; Cosmos 2, 3, 4; Phil-Hellenic 2, 3, 4; Cross-Country Squad 4; Y. M. C. A., 1, 2, 3, 4, Cabinet 3, 4; Intercollegiate Editor of the Student 3.

If I am happy
In my love
Of virtue's tender face,
I'll rest content
When life is spent,
Upon the Master's grace.

ARDIS BEVERLY CHASE, A.B.

Augusta, Maine

Born September 10, 1906; Cony High School; Student Government, Sophomore Representative, House Senior; Entre Nous; Alethea; Le Cercle Francais; Y. W. C. A.

Ardis, where our fancy flies
We are sure that we shall meet
The hidden gleam of roguish eyes,
And the little dancing feet.
So since we know you are so wise,
Need you be so wholly sweet?

CHARLOTTE MELOON CLARKE, A.B.

"Charlie"

Kittery, Maine

Born September 6, 1907; R. W. Traip Academy; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Entre Nous; Ramsdell Scientific Society 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 2, 3, President 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; W. A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Numerals; "B" Sweater; Volley Ball 2, 3, 4; Soccer 2, 3; Gym Meet 3; Hiking 1, 2, 3, 4.

Little friend, don't let Biology
Displace the sweet trilogy
Of joy, of freedom, and of love;
For, by the shining stars above,
We know that you are much too dear
For halls of Science, dim and drear!

TAYLOR DANFORTH CLOUGH, A.B.

"Ted"

Malden, Massachusetts

Born August 6, 1906; Dean Academy and Gould Academy; Deutscher Verein 4; Men's Glee Club 4; Manager of Tennis 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

A wanderer o'er the briny deep,
A man whose memories will keep Nomadic fires within
For Germany or South Sea Isles,
For flaxen hair or Fiji wiles;—
We understand the grin!

E. GEORGE CLOUTIER, A.B.

Uncasville, Connecticut

Born July 12, 1907; Bulkeley High School, Norwich Academy; Providence College; Spofford Club 4.

A stormy spirit,—restless soul,
Steadfast, intent upon its goal;—
A scion of the seers.
A shooting star that streaks the sky.
A stormy petrel, preened to fly;—
To mock this vale of tears.

CYThERA COBURN, A.B.

"Cy"

Bradford, Massachusetts

Born December 3, 1907; Laconia High School; Women's Politics Club, Secretary 4; Y. W. C. A.; Entre Nous; Heelers 4.

'Tis Cythera's mighty intellect
From which she surely will collect
Much riches and renown.
A perfect shark in history
The wearer of a Phi Bete Kcy
Success her work will crown.

AURA WHITNEY COLEMAN, A.B.

"Coallie"

Portland, Maine

Born April 7, 1907; Kennebunk High School; Bates Student Board; Outing Club; Y. M. C. A.; Freshman Football; Track Squad 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Track 4; Winter Sports 3, 4.

An athlete dashes on the scene,
A track man with a modest mien
That is a gift we're told.
His curly hair and noble face
Endow him with a Greek god's grace
Full wondrous to behold.

JOHN EMMET COLLINS, A.B.

Lewiston, Maine

Born January 31, 1907; Jordan High School; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4.

Sparkling Gaelic humor,
Aglow in Irish eyes;
And all the while, a saintly smile
His mischief sanctifies.
A blithesome spirit of dear Athlone
Whose lips have kissed the Blarney stone!

MARTHA PAULINE COOMBS, A.B.

"Polly"

New Gloucester, Maine

Born July 19, 1907; New Gloucester High School; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Choir 1, 2, 4; Student Government House Senior 4; Publishing Board, Secretary 4; Lambda Alpha 2, 3; Entre Nous; Y. W. C. A.; Outing Club.

Thy voice is like an angel's song,
Thy fleeting smiles we would prolong;
Thine eyes bewitch us, too.
A dainty flower in the breeze,
A treasure-trove for honey bees;—
Thus we'll remember you!

LOIS PEARLE COX, A.B.

Woodland, Maine

Born January 11, 1904; Woodland High and Hebron Academy; Entre Nous; Women's Politics Club, Vice-President 3; Latin Club, President 3; Y. W. C. A.; Outing Club.

Though that twinkle in your eye
Will seem always to belie
The dignity that one must reach
If she successfully would teach,
Your recent pedagogic trial
Has proved your worth beyond denial.

DUDLEY ERWIN DAVIS, B.S.

"Dud"

Saco, Maine

Born October 4, 1905; Thornton Academy; Politics Club 3, 4; P and P Club 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Tennis, Captain 4.

And even, Dud, if you were thin
As Aunt Eliza's cousin Min,
We'd love you for the way you smile,
The way you talk a little while,
And then, returning to your peace,
Invite us squalling ones to cease.

JOHN FREDERICK DAVIS, A.B.

Portland, Maine

Born July 11, 1907; Deering High School; Politics Club, Secretary 3, President 4; Spofford Club 4; Debating Council 3, 4.

His words are cold, precise,—and finely drawn
Like Corot's pictures of the early morn,—
Each phrase indicative of one clear thought,
Expressing light and sweetness interwrought.
Withal, he met us as a king his peer,
Though he was nobler, far, than any here.

FLORENCE ELIZABETH DAY, A.B.

"Flo"

Gorham, Maine

Born December 27, 1902; Gorham High School; Entre Nous; Alethea; Deutscher Verein; Le Cercle Francais; Y. W. C. A.

If a miss is as good as her smile,
Then, Florence, you're surely worthwhile.
Up on the campus, down in the town
You always go, laughing, with never a frown.
And whether in classes, at work, or play,
You are quite as clever as you are gay.

MURIEL FRANCES DOE, A.B.

Kezar Falls, Maine

Born August 15, 1908; Porter High School; Phil-Hellenic 2, 3, 4; W. A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Cosmos Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Prize Speaking 1, 2; Hiking 2, 3, 4; Winter Sports 3.

Our prodigy, our baby girl,
Whose life will be a perfect whirl
Of heathens benighted,—and sinners too,
And dusky brutes in Timbuktu;
Of mission-priests in a foreign land
With their patient wives,—a godlike band.

RALPH MITCHELL DOW, B.S.

"Raff", "Dowser"

Biddeford, Maine

Born April 29, 1904; Biddeford High and Hebron Academy; Freshman Football; Vice-President W. Parker Hall Association; Assistant Stage Manager 4As 3, Stage Manager 4; Business Manager 4As; Class Treasurer 2; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Football Squad 2, 3; Track Squad 2, 3.

And here we're pausing as we go
To watch the "Dowser", ambling slow,
Upon the avenue.
A wintry gale or summer breeze
Will always find him at his ease
In aught that he may do.

GEORGE VANCE DRABBLE, A.B.

"Snowball"

Holyoke, Massachusetts

Born May 5, 1906; Westfield and Newburyport High Schools; Varsity Club; Greek Club; Cosmos Club; Winter Sports, Captain 4; Football Squad, Varsity 4.

A massive figure, this, we see;
Another with a Phi Bete key;
He's virtue's paragon.
A Bib Lit student, athlete, too,
A man who all things well can do;—
A rare phenomenon.

HAROLD RODERICK DUFFEN, B.S.

"Hal", "Duff"

Methuen, Massachusetts

Born February 1, 1901; Bridgton Academy; Deutscher Verein; Outing Club; Vice-President of Winter Sports and Manager; Secretary and Treasurer of West Parker Hall Association.

A few sparse hairs with open space between,
A grinning face that looks so red and clean,—
A gleeful chuckle or a raucous laugh,—
A pun, a clever quip, or epitaph,
In Irish wit, none dare to vie with Duff,
For if they did, they'd find the going tough!

ELVA MAY DUNCAN, A.B.

Presque Isle, Maine

Born September 24, 1907; Presque Isle High School; Entre Nous; Alethea 2, 3; Choir 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; A. A. Board 4; Hiking Manager; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 3; Student Government 4; House Senior; Social Service Committee 2, 3; Macfarlane Club 3, 4; Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4; Soccer 1, 2, 3; Baseball 3; Basketball 3; Gym Meet 1, 3; "E" Club; Outing Club.

Who would have dreamed Maine's woodland wild
 Could nurture such a perfect child—
 As Elva proved to be?
 Her voice—is soft and strangely sweet;
 And Philip worships at her feet;—
 A lucky boy is he!

MARION ELIZABETH DUNCAN, A.B.

"Mary Anne"

Augusta, Maine

Born March 23, 1907; Cony High School; Entre Nous; Alethea, House Council; Y. W. C. A.

Dark shining hair, and earnest sober eyes,
 A sweet reserve; a tenderness that flies
 Out and away from us to find its rest
 In lovely dreams of future happiness
 With "Sil". We give you joy, our gentle maid,
 And peace to bless your dream's parade.

JAMES HUMPHRY DUNCAN, A.B.

"Jim"

Lewiston, Maine

Born November 20, 1905; Jordan High School; Outing Club; Y. M. C. A.

Jim always was a quiet boy,
 Who in his studies took much joy,—
 A local prodigy.
 Because of injuries he forsook
 The lure of track for lure of book;—
 He has ability.

ELBERT SIDNEY EMERY, A.B.

"Em"

Portland, Maine

Born April 4, 1904; Portland High School; Cosmos Club, Treasurer 3; Phil-Hellenic; Outing Club; Y. M. C. A.

Thou righteous son of good old Bates,
 We hope that she appreciates
 Thy boundless loyalty.
 Sincere endeavor is thy creed,
 For which renown should be thy meed,—
 And heaven's royalty.

EDWARD IRVIN ERICKSON, B.S.

"Lief", "Eric"

Newburyport, Massachusetts

Born December 2 1906; Newburyport High School; Freshman Hockey, Varsity Hockey 2, 4; Varsity Football 3; Baseball Squad 1, 2; Varsity Club 2, 3, 4; Commons Committee 3; Senior Social Committee; Outing Club; Y. M. C. A.

We thought that Swedes were most attractive men,—
 And "Lief" has proved our theory again!
 A football and a hockey "B" he claims
 Which waken in our co-eds slumb'ring flames.
 His social work for "Twenty-Eight" we praise,—
 And hope he'll smile at it in later days.

DONALD JACOB FEARON, A.B.

"Don"

Whitefield, New Hampshire

Born November 8, 1904; Whitefield High School; Varsity Club 4; Varsity Track Squad 1, 2, 3; Varsity Track 4; Deutscher Verein 3, 4; Golf Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A.; Outing Club.

Our Don, a very little man is he,
 But one endowed with rare ability.
 We know his German knowledge is profound;—
 And with his "trick" mustache he does astound.
 He is the proud possessor of a "B";—
 His vaulting in the State Meet we shall see.

OLIVE LEE FLANDERS, A.B.

"Pop"

Auburn, Maine

Born April 28, 1908; Edward Little High School; Student Government 3, 4; Politics Club 3, 4; Alethea 2, 3; Le Cercle Francais 4; Heelers Club 4; Y. W. C. A.

Oh, Pop, how can we let you know
 The reasons why we love you so,
 And think you have no peer?
 A nature that is lovely, quite,
 Untainted by a thought of spite;—
 We think you are a dear!

MARTHA WILMARTH FLETCHER, A.B.

"Mart"

South Paris, Maine

Born April 23, 1906; South Paris High School; Phil-Hellenic 2, 3, 4, Vice-President 3; Deutscher Verein 3, 4; House Committee 2; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Although to "Twenty-Eight" you're new,
 We've come to think a lot of you;
 We're glad that you came back.
 In German, honors you have won;
 Though studious, you are heaps of fun,—
 Real friends you'll never lack.

LEWIS FREEMAN FOSTER. B.S.

"Lou"

Belmont, Massachusetts

Born October 14, 1906; Belmont High School; Freshman Football; Freshman Hockey; Varsity Football 2, 3, 4; Varsity Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Jordan Scientific; Men's Politics Club; Outing Club; Y. M. C. A.; President of Class 2.

A grin, wide-spread across thy noble face,—
 A head o'er which a million ripples chase,—
 A conscientious and an upright soul,—
 A heart that some devising co-ed stole!
 An athlete, thou,—a dainty flower, she;—
 We wonder which will gain superiority?

ANNIE BAILEY FREEMAN. A.B.

"Anne"

North Windham, Maine

Born September 26, 1906; Windham High School; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Chairman World Fellowship Committee 4; Spofford Club 4; Numerals; "B" Club.

Oh wistful dreamer, what will you do
 When teaching is irksome and you are blue?
 Will you write your thoughts in a story rare,—
 Or hide them with meticulous care?
 We wonder if always your spirit will roam,
 Though your dream-ship of fame is anchored at home?

CHARLOTTE RUSSELL FULLER. A.B.

Augusta, Maine

Born February 8, 1906; Cony High School; Entre Nous; Alethea 3; La Petite Academie 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. Publicity Committee 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; French Players 4.

That she's an artist her sketches show;—
 How came she to be so wise,—
 The lass with the lithe-fantastic toe
 And lightly laughing eyes?
 'Tis quite too bad she chose to mate
 With "Tom" who's now a graduate!

MARION ELINOR GARCELON. A.B.

Lewiston, Maine

Born November 2, 1906; Jordan High School; 4A Players 2, 3, 4, President 4; Varsity Play 2, 3; Vice-President of Class 3; Social Functions Committee 3; Alethea 2, 3; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Prize Speaking 1, 2; Student Government 4; Glee Club 2, 3; President of Lambda Alpha 4; "B" Club.

How charming is your brilliant smile,
 Your conversation, gay!
 We always love to pause awhile
 When you have come our way.
 And in acting, athletics, and singing you seem
 To prove that your versatile self is supreme!

AVARD CHARLES GARLAND. A.B.

"Chawlie"

Bridgton, Maine

Born May 26, 1904; Havelock High School, N. B., Canada; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Macfarlane Club 3, 4; President of College Choir; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Garnet Quartet 3, 4.

Such dignity you have displayed,
Such great impressions you have made,
Renown should be your due.
A singer that we can't forget
In choir, glee club, and quartet,
An ardent student, too.

LILLIAN ALTHEA GILES. A.B.

"Li"

Kezar Falls, Maine

Born August 13, 1907; Porter High School; Entre Nous; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; W. A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Deutscher Verein 4; Debating Council 3, 4; Sophomore Prize Debate; Intercollegiate Radcliffe and Connecticut College Debates.

Sufficient praises can't be sung
Of her rich eloquence of tongue;—
Debating is her forte,
A quiet but a thoughtful lass,
Who goes prepared to every class,
And is a corking sport.

FRANK HAROLD GLAZIER. A.B.

"Frankie"

Sullivan, New Hampshire

Born September 9, 1903; Keene High School; Student Board 2, News Editor 3; Phil-Hellenic 2, 3, 4; Politics Club 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Psychology Assistant 4; Honor Student in Psychology.

His "psychological" brilliancy
Will win him a "cum laude" degree,—
All hail to this savant's name!
We prophesy that his work shall be
Certain to win immortality,
And a place in the "Hall of Fame".

HELEN EDITH GOODALL. A.B.

Mechanic Falls, Maine

Born December 22, 1906; Mechanic Falls High School; Entre Nous; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Phil-Hellenic Club 2, 3, 4; Latin Club 4.

To say you are industrious
Would be a trifle mild;
Your zeal's become illustrious,
Oh conscientious child!
Coeducation tempts not you,—
To "Joe" you're evidently true!

GERARD ARTHUR GORDON, A.B.

"Jerry"

Farmington Falls, Maine

Born November 17, 1906; Farmington High School; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4.

He's rarely given to lengthy speech;
His owl-like air should help him teach,
If such his choice should be.
There is not much that we can say
Except—he drives a Chevrolet;—
A cozy lad is he!

LEON ROSS GRANT, B.S.

"Lee"

Mexico, Maine

Born October 10, 1904; Stockton Springs High School; Manager of Hockey 4; Varsity Club 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4.

His name is "Business" through and through;
He sells us pictures and other things, too,
In his persuasive way.
A hockey manager was he;
He is efficient as can be;
What else is there to say?

CHARLES HUNTER GUPTILL, A.B.

"Gup", "Charlie"

Portland, Maine

Born July 2, 1907; Deering High School; 4A Players; Spofford Club; Politics Club; Le Cercle Francais; Varsity Play 1; Debating Council, Secretary 3, President 4; Editor-in-Chief Bates Student; Varsity Debating 1, 2, 3, 4; Chase Hall Committee; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet; Freshman Prize Speaking; Sophomore Prize Speaking; Junior Exhibition; Argumentation Assistant 3, 4; Around-The-World Debating Team 4.

Hic est: a man of heart, a man complete,
Keen-minded, nobly planned, without conceit,
Rash at a time when 'twere but wisdom veiled,
By seeming so, to prove the truth assailed;
And cautious, then, proceeding slowly, sure
That else but caution could not long endure.

ELIZABETH HAYES HALL, A.B.

"Betty"

Norway, Maine

Born November 26, 1906; Norway High School; W. A. A. Representative 2, 4, Vice-President 3; Hockey 1, 2, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Soccer 2; Archery 3; House President 4; Entre Nous 1; Class Secretary 2.

Almost each week-end finds you far
From campus rules and such;
And though sometimes your flight we'd bar,
We cannot blame you much!
Your personality is one
That wins a fight ere it's begun.

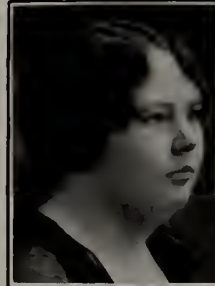

HELEN MARION HANKE. A.B.

"Hankie"

Lewiston, Maine

Born March 8, 1906; Jordan High School; Deutscher Verein 3, 4; Entre Nous; Lambda Alpha 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

A local co-ed claims the stage,
A nature, sweet, has she,
We write her name upon the page
Entitled "Gayety".
In all things, earnest and sincere;
Success, through life, her course will steer.

RUTH ELLA HASTINGS. A.B.

Bethel, Maine

Born February 24, 1907; Gould Academy; Entre Nous; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Latin Club 4; World Fellowship Committee.

A clever girl she's known to be,—
A member of the Glee Club, she,
And Latin Club as well,
But words are limited, we see,
And feel that her ability
Her actions better tell.

PERRY DAVENPORT HAYDEN. B.S.

"Dutch"

Auburn, Maine

Born October 7, 1905; Edward Little High School; Art Editor Bobcat 3; Ivy Day Speaker 3.

A little man of mighty deeds,
The type of chap who seldom heeds
The handicap of size,
An artist, too, he's known to be,
And of no mean ability,
He's destined to be wise.

HORACE PERRY HERRICK. B.S.

"Hod"

Southwest Harbor, Maine

Born October 15, 1903; Pemetic High School; Class Basketball 1, 2, 3; Varsity Basketball 1, 2; Track Squad 1, 2; Golf Club 3, 4; P. and P. Club 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Jordan Scientific Society.

"For woman's name is strange to me;
It likes me not their simpers,
But give me pipe and chair and book
And I'll forswear their whimpers;
For sweeter comfort, sweeter thought,
My pipe will serve me as 'twas taught."

LOUISE LAURESTINE HERSEY, A.B.

"Squeeze"

North Waterford, Maine

Born February 5, 1907; Bridgton Academy; Entre Nous; Cosmos Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Sodalitas Latina 3, 4; Ramsdell Scientific 4; Secretary Latin Club 4; Honor Student in Mathematics; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Hiking 1, 3.

She keeps flowers on her window sill
 Though she strays amid intricate mazes
 Of Math, and could tip cups with the sad, glad
 Poet himself; she comes back from Calculus
 And converse with the ancients—to find a
 Deep contentment as "one who dared".

MABEL PAULINE HILL, A.B.

"Polly"

Dover, New Hampshire

Born November 29, 1905; Dover High School; Deutscher Verein 3, 4, President 4; Sodalitas Latina 3, 4, President 4; Heelers 4; Cosmos 2, 3, 4; Entre Nous; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor work and assistantship in German.

Tall, stately, dignified, she walks among Us, wrapped in thought; deeply considering
 Scholastic fame to be hers some fair day.
 Most diligent she is, and studious;
 Yet, in her spirit, somewhat like the sea—
 Forever restless though so seldom gay.

STILLMAN MOULTON HOBBS, A.B.

"Stilly", "Hobbsey"

Hampton, New Hampshire

Born April 11, 1903; Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass.; Varsity Club 2, 3, 4; Student Board 2; English Assistant 4; Varsity Cross-Country 1, 2, 3; New England Champions 2; Athletic Editor Mirror 4; Bates Publishing Association 3, 4, Vice-President 3, President 4.

We know cross-country brought you fame,
 And though we've loudly praised your name,
 Your modesty endures.
 In English you have proved quite bright,—
 Assistant to our "Eddie" Wright!
 What subtle charm is yours!

ELLANOR BURDITT HOWE, A.B.

Rumford, Maine

Born May 28, 1906; Stephens High School; 4A Players 2, 3, 4; Varsity Play 2; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. Cabinet 4; Prize Speaking 1; Entre Nous; Chairman Y. W. C. A. Social Committee 4.

Sipping the honey of life she goes
 Madly along her way,—
 Stealing the beauty, plucking the rose,
 Living forever in May.
 Courting the sunshine, mocking the shower,
 Drinking the sweetness of each merry hour.

HAROLD KENNETH HUDSON, B.S.

"Prexy"

North Plymouth, Massachusetts

Born November 5, 1905; Kingston High School; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Choir 2, 3; Glee Club 2; Prize Speaking 1.

The air with Yankee twang resounds
When learnedly our "Prex" expounds
His views on chemistry.
In labs he once spent all his days,
But now coeducation plays
The leading role, we see!

HECTOR PRICE HUGHES, A.B.

"Hec", "Gimlet"

Portland, Maine

Born April 15, 1904; Deering High School; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Mens Politics Club, Secretary.

A silent unassuming chap,
Whose reticence is hard to gap,—
Unless one knows the way.
A Welch "rare-bit" of humor chokes
"Hec's" faculty for getting jokes;—
But he will laugh some day!

SAMUEL HARDEN HYDE, A.B.

"Sam"

Lewiston, Maine

Born August 11, 1907; Peru High School, Peru, N. Y.; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Macfarlane 4; Chapel Organist 3, 4.

Music, we know, is the gift of the gods:
How well they have treated you!
Quietly onward you go your way
As one of the chosen few.
Silent, but friendly we find Sam to be,—
Student, musician, good fellow,—all three.

DANA LYNDON INGLE, A.B.

"Dingle"

East Orange, New Jersey

Born March 8, 1906; Kearney and East Orange High Schools; Secretary of Class 1; Spofford Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; Bates Student 1, 2, 3, 4, Women's Editor 4; Women's Politics Club 3, 4, President 4; Mirror Board 4.

I know her? No! Does anyone, pray tell,
Unless the strange, exotic music of
A tempest prelude with its witching spell
Is speech familiar to his ear. For love
Of gold I cannot do't: here translate
Her charm—exquisite, delicate.

ARLAND JENKINS, A.B.

"Al", "Jenk"

Danforth, Maine

Born May 2, 1906; Danforth High School; Le Cercle Francais 1, 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 3; Sophomore Prize Debate 2; Junior Exhibition Speaker, Honors and Assistantship in Economics; Varsity Debating 4; Debates with University of Vermont and U. of Pennsylvania; Men's Politics; Debating Council 2, 3, 4; Debating Editor of Student; French Play 2.

"Me and Coolidge have decided
That if we should be derided
For our party views and such
That we would not argue much:
Only have the upstarts know,
Me and Pa and Cal think so!"

MARJORIE LAURA JEWELL, A.B.

"Cuss", "Marge"

Merrimac, Massachusetts

Born June 12, 1906; Merrimac High School; Entre Nous; W. A. A. Board, Basketball Manager 3; Student Government 3, 4, Secretary-Treasurer 3; Ramsdell Scientific 3, 4; Numerals; Sweater 2; Medal 3; Captain Volley Ball 2; Captain Track 3; Junior Prom Committee; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

We scarce know how to justly sing your praise
You have excelled us in so many ways.
An athlete thou, a member of "Stu G.",
And countless other things you seem to be.
Good-natured, happy, and unto the end—
A sport; in every sense a loyal friend.

HERBERT DYER JOHNSON, B.S.

"Herb"

Brownville, Maine

Born November 17, 1905; Brownville High School; Bobcat Board; Jordan Scientific; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Although artistically inclined,
Within our friend we also find
Efficiency prevails.
A sincere, conscientious heart,
And speech, by subtle wit made tart;
A man that seldom fails.

MARY ISABELLE JONES, A.B.

"Billie"

Portland, Maine

Born January 12, 1907; Stickney School, Chicago, and Portland High; Entre Nous; Choir 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Macfarlane 2, 3, 4, Secretary and Treasurer 3, President 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4, Cabinet Representative 3, 4; French Club 3, 4; Student Curriculum Committee 4.

The melody of laughter rings—
The whole of nature softly sings—
The stream rolls gaily on,
We shall remember and rejoice
At thought of Billie's smile and voice
Forever and anon!

LAWRENCE HOWLAND KNOX. B.S.

"Larry"

New Bedford, Massachusetts

Born September 30, 1906; New Bedford High School; Jordan Scientific Society; Varsity Club; Outing Club; Y. M. C. A.; Football Squad 2, 3, 4, Varsity 4; Freshman Football.

The "Lord", a mighty man is he,
And full well versed in chemistry,—
An expert they do say.
And though a "B" is on his breast,
At words and mischief he is best—
Both in the night and day!

WYLAND FENWAY LEADBETTER, B.S.

"Wy", "Lead"

Auburn, Maine

Born January 9, 1907; Edward Little High School; Macfarlane Club 2, 3, 4; Orphic Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 3, 4; Vice-President of Macfarlane 4; Jordan Scientific 3, 4, President 4; Class Treasurer 4; Assistant in Biology 2, 3, 4; Honor Student in Zoology 4.

But rarely do we find a man like "Wy"
Whose every act his worth will qualify.
He's clever with the violin, although
He's also taking honor work in "zoo".
Although he's bright, he's human like the rest;
And that's the type that everyone likes best

PAMELIA LEIGHTON. A.B.

"Pam"

Portland, Maine

Born August 27, 1906; Deering High School; Entre Nous, President 1; Alethea 2, 3; Sodalitas Latina 3; Ramsdell Scientific 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Chairman of Convention Committee 3; Captain of Hockey 2; Manager Hockey 3; President of W. A. A. Board 4; Class Secretary 3; Numerals 1; Sweater 2; Medal 3; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Curriculum Committee 4.

We think her personality
Is quite as lovely as can be,— Ingenuous and sweet.
In all things versatile and kind;—
It is no wonder that we find
The whole world at her feet!

BEATRICE ELIZABETH LIBBY, A.B.

"B"

Lewiston, Maine

Born September 27, 1906; Jordan High School; Entre Nous; Freshman Debate; Manager of Sophomore Women's Debate; Orphic Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Lambda Alpha 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. Town Representative 4; Macfarlane 4; "B" Sweater 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Charming, but modest in every way
Like a startled deer you seem;
Athlete, musician, and student they say;—
A realist loving to dream.
Smiling and laughing with everyone;
Loved by all of us, disliked by none!

MARION LITTLEFIELD, A.B.

Westboro, Massachusetts

Born October 12, 1906; Milford High School, Massachusetts; Entre Nous; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; "B" Sweater 3, 4; Sodalitas Latina 3, 4; Ramsdell Scientific 4; House Council 4.

Out of your gentleness, out of your truth
Have grown for us, who know and love you,—
Immortal flowers of friendship,—
May their fragrance drift forever through
The garden of your life, made gay
And beautiful by your smiling self.

HOWARD ALLEN LONG, A.B.

"Shorty", "Parson"

Mechanic Falls, Maine

Born June 13, 1897; North Yarmouth Academy; Phil-Hellenic Club, Vice-President 3, President 4; Cosmos Club.

Some come to college just to play,—
To sleep and eat and while away
A few more years in song.
But others come intent on work,
And in their courses never shirk:
One of these last is Long.

JOHN MALCOLM LORING, B.S.

"Mack", "Daddy"

Bath, Maine

Born June 20, 1906; Morse High School; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4.

He smiles and lets the world go by;
He smiles to think that others sigh
When life is fresh and sweet.
Complacently he wends his way,
While others hurry to the fray
That rages 'neath his feet.

LORNA LOUGEE, A.B.

"Lorma"

Sanford, Maine

Born August 23, 1906; Sanford High School; Chairman Social Service Committee Y. W. C. A. 3, 4; French Club 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; W. A. A.; Hiking Captain 4; Cosmos Club 3, 4; "B" Sweater.

She can be very dignified indeed,
But do not let appearances mislead;
For also she can be a comrade gay
Plumb full of fun in every way.
The sparkles in her eyes are elfin-gold,
And that means that she never can grow old.

ETHEL MARION MACE, A.B.

"Esmarelda"

West Haven, Connecticut

Born May 1, 1905; New Haven High School; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Cosmos Club; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

A Nutmeg campus loved you first;
But then you came to us, who erst
Have loved you for your gentle way
That left us cheerful. So we say,
"A sweet reserve and modest grace
Will best describe you, Ethel Mace".

WILLIAM STOCKS MARSHALL, A.B.

"Bill"

Auburn, Maine

Born April 2, 1905; Edward Little High School; Debating Council; French Club; Freshman Debating Council.

Bill is the type that seldom shows
To anyone how much he knows:
He lets the others rant,
But though his gifts remain unsung,
His poignant wit and clever tongue
Will win him fame, we grant.

JOHN BENJAMIN MARSTON, B.S.

West Auburn, Maine

Born September 25, 1906; Edward Little High School; Jordan Scientific; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

We dare not take you for a "ride",
Oh Profs' delight and Parker's pride!
We fear thy mighty wrath.
So we'll not publish all you do,—
Just say you're on the baseball crew
And scintillate in Math.

RALPH EDWIN McCURDY, B.S.

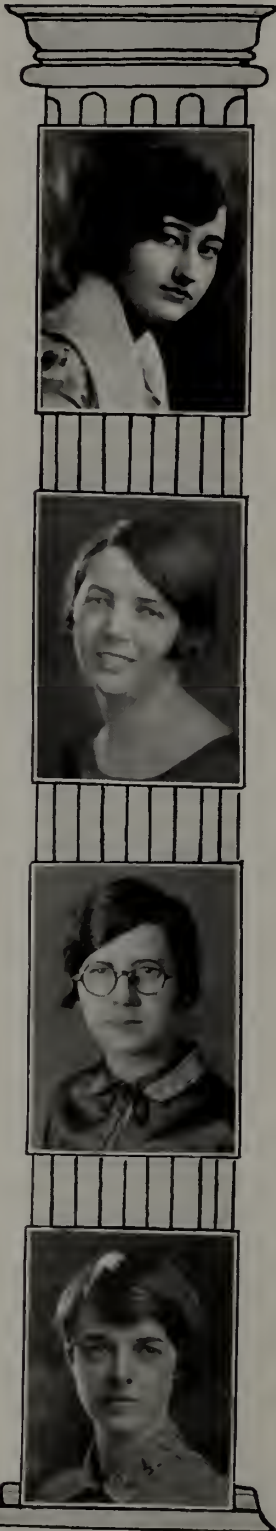

"Pat"

Gardiner, Maine

Born June 14, 1906; Gardiner High School; Football Squad 2, 3, 4, Varsity 2, 4; Track Squad 1, 2, 3; Freshman Football 1; Outing Club Director 1, 2, 3, 4; Jordan Scientific 4; Varsity Club 2, 3, 4, President 4; Ivy Day Speaker 3; Society Editor Mirror.

"Pat" is an athlete and a leading man,—
And has been since his college life began.
A diplomatic lad, and cosy—quite
Too generous to accuse of being tight.
It seems too bad a graduated lass
So early snared "beau-brummel" of our class!

CAROLYN FREDRICA MERRILL, A.B.

"Freddie"

Mechanic Falls, Maine

Born December 15, 1907; Mechanic Falls High School; Glee Club 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Entre Nous.

Our carolling, dancing, singing sprite,
Whose loves are legion—who will write,
"I want you, it is true, today,
But for tomorrow—one can't say.
Now can one?" A precious maiden; constant quite
As April sunshine in the night.

BEATRICE EMMA MILLIKEN, A.B.

"Bee"

New Rochelle, New York

Born March 4, 1907; Cony High School; Entre Nous; Alethea 2; Outing Club Director 2, 3; Politics Club 4; Y. W. C. A. Secretary 2, Vice-President 3, President 4; Cosmos Club 2, 3, 4; Curriculum Committee 3, 4; Captain Hockey 4; "B" Sweater.

We like to see your smiling face;—
Your rare good-nature seems to chase
Away the darkest days.
You, in activities, outdo
Us all; and so it is to you
The Class its homage pays.

RUTH EVELYN MOORE, A.B.

"Ruthie"

Farmington, Maine

Born December 25, 1904; Farmington High School; Cosmos Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Secretary and Vice-President; Student Volunteers 2, 3, 4, Secretary and Treasurer; Vice-President and Secretary of State Council; Entre Nous; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Assistant in Biblical Literature 4.

While we have been in college,—every year
Has made you seem more truly the sincere
Glad giver of yourself to those in need,—
Making service the joy of your creed.
And you have kept your faith a shining star
To guide your happy spirit high and far.

MARGARET MORRIS, A.B.

"Mig"

Dorchester, Massachusetts

Born March 8, 1907; Dorchester High School; Entre Nous 1; Macfarlane 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 3, 4; Choir 4; Ramsdell Scientific 3; Class Vice-President 2; Alethea 2, 3; Student Government, Sophomore Representative 2; Vice-President 3; President 4; A. A. Board 3; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Curriculum Committee 3, 4; Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4; Volley Ball 1, 2; Baseball 3; Hiking 1, 3; Gym Meet 1, 2, 3; Winter Sports 1, 2, 3; Soccer 2, 3; Tennis 1; Track 1, 2; Sophomore Hop Committee; Athletic Cup 4; "B" Sweater; Medal 3; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

How great has been your work,—how nobly done!
Success in everything,—defeat in none.
A leader, born, whose charm and intellect
Command from all of us our deep respect.
At all times cheerful, helpful, loving, true;
We shall expect to hear great things of you.

MIRIAM LAURA MORTON, A.B.

"Mimi"

Portland, Maine

Born November 2, 1905; Deering High School; Entre Nous; Cosmos Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Portland Club 1, 2; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Deutscher Verein 3, 4; Secretary and Treasurer 4; Ramsdell Scientific 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Hiking 1, 2, 3; Numerals.

At times you prattle quite divertingly
But in a class—most disconcertingly.
You'll marshal forth the facts to perfection
Whereat the slothful slump in dejection.
Why not rest from study once in a while
And trust completely your unfailing smile?

JOHN MAXIM MOULTON, A.B.

Lewiston, Maine

Born December 28, 1905; Deering High School; Tennis Squad 3, 4; Winter Sports Squad 3; Choir 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Macfarlane 3, 4; Deutscher Verein 3, 4; Jordan Scientific 4.

He stands before us, quiet,—wise;
But all of us he could surprise
With things that he can do:
A clever tennis player he,
Assistant in biology,
A choir singer too!

MERTON FREDERIC MOULTON, A.B.

"Mert"

Gorham, Maine

Born October 23, 1906; Westbrook Seminary; Track Squad 1, 2, 3, Manager 4; Student Board 2, 3, 4, Advertising Manager 4; Varsity Club 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4.

His rosy cheeks and ready grin
Suggest complacency within
That curl-enshrouded pate.
We see in his activities
Executive propensities
That he should cultivate.

ELIZABETH MAE MURRAY, A.B.

"Betty", "Betty Mae"

Born October 10, 1905; Jordan High School; Entre Nous 1; Lambda Alpha 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; W. A. A. 4; "B" Sweater; Class Vice-President 4; Ivy Day Committee 3; Hiking 2; Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4, Captain 3; Volley Ball 1, 2, 3, 4; Soccer 1, 2, 3, 4, Manager 3; Basketball 3; Archery 3; Medal 4; Gym Meet 1, 2, 3; Captain Soccer 1.

Her diffidence and modest mien
Conceal her worth behind a screen
Of false obscurity;
But when we know the things she's done,—
But few their honors will have won
With greater surety.

FRANCES LOUISE NICHOLS, A.B.

"Frincuss"

Portland, Maine

Portland High School; Bobcat Board 2, 3; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4.

Poet and artist combined in one
 Witty and mischievous,—full of fun,—
 Life of the crowd is she.
 Seldom is "Frincuss" alone in Rand;
 John's always there to obey her command,—
 Loving servility!

KENNETH HAROLD NUGENT, A.B.

"Ken"

North Stratford, New Hampshire

Born September 17, 1905; Stratford High School; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; J. B. P. 2A.

He leads a solitary life
 Himself his closest friend.
 Serenely on through life he goes
 With naught disturbing his repose,—
 Complacent to the end.

HERBERT WILLIS OVIATT JR., B.S.

"Herb", "Red"

New Haven, Connecticut

Born August 2, 1905; New Haven High School; Freshman Football; Freshman Track; Football Squad 2, 3, 4, Varsity 4; Varsity Track 1, 2, 3, 4; Penn Relay Team 1; Editor-in-Chief of Mirror 4; Editor-in-Chief of Bobcat 3; Sketch Editor of Bobcat 2; Student Board 1, 2, 3, 4, Sport Editor 3, 4; Spofford Club 4; Varsity Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Director 2; Ivy Day Speaker 3; Ivy Hop Committee 3; Gym Fund Committee 3, 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4.

For armor—a soul that rose and soared
 Above the reach of men;
 For helm and steed—a mordant wit;
 For sword—a caustic pen:
 His Crusade's object—"To chastise
 Whom he loves not." Sir Knight, arise!

MANFORD LEROY PALMER, B.S.

"Manny", "Mandy"

Norway, Maine

Born July 12, 1906; Norway High School; Student Council 3, 4, Vice-President 4; Varsity Club 2, 3, 4; Jordan Scientific 2, 3, 4; Chase Hall Committee 3, 4; Chemistry Assistant 4; Varsity Football 2, 3, 4; Hockey 3; Baseball 3, 4; Class Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Football; Co. Club 4.

Norway has sent us a talented man
 One with the motto, "I will and I can".
 A spirited leader of men.
 Letters in three major sports is his claim;
 His chemistry also will add to his fame;
 For he works with the ardor of ten.

CLARA FRANCES PARNELL, A.B.

Lewiston, Maine

Born March 25, 1907; Entre Nous; Lambda Alpha 2, 3, 4; Debating Council 3, 4; Delta Sigma Rho 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A.; Numerals; "B"; Ivy Day Speaker 3; Junior Banquet Committee; Secretary Debating Council 4; Freshman Prize Debate; Sophomore Prize Debate; Varsity Debating 3, 4; Argumentation Assistant 4; Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4; Soccer 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1; Baseball 3; Gym Meet 1.

Clara's always ready
For work or for fun;
As athlete or debater
Her work is well done;
But the thing that we'll remember, for oh, so long a while
That signifies the girl's herself—is just her sunny smile.

CHARLES STANLEY PEABBLES, B.S.

"Handsome"

South Portland, Maine

Born 1904; Cape Elizabeth High School; Varsity Club; Football; Y. M. C. A.; Outing Club.

He has a way with the women, they say,—
Our campus beau-brummel, "C. Stan",
That driveth them wild over this mother's child,
This cosy, smooth-looking he-man,
Whose face is his fortune: and wealthy is he
If classical beauty is cash currency!

HERMAN WHITTIER PEARSON, A.B.

"Pete"

Madison, New Hampshire

Born June 1, 1907; New Hampton Literary Institute; Orphic Society 2; Choir 1, 2; Band 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 1, 2; Mandolin Club 1; Y. M. C. A.

An unassuming type is he
Though he could justly claim
Some musical ability
A credit to his name.
In parting, Parker thanks you, Pete,—
Your car has often saved our feet!

NORMAN HERBERT PRATT, A.B.

Kennebunkport, Maine

Born March 1, 1906; Kennebunkport High School; Y. M. C. A.; Outing Club; Phil-Hellenic Club; Cosmos Club; President of the Roger Williams Hall Association.

Before us stands a student, proud,
That we appreciate;
And reverently our heads are bowed
To him who claims Phi Beta.
We find a sincere soul, an earnest heart,
A healthy mind and body from the start.

FLORENCE MARGARET PRATT, A.B.

"Flossie", "Pat"

Kennebunkport, Maine

Born May 8 1903; Higgins Classical Institute and Kennebunkport High School; Cosmos Club 2, 3, 4; Student Volunteers 3, President 4; French Club 3, 4; Y. W. C. A.; Student Board 3; Outing Club; "B" Girl; Hiking 2, 3, 4; Volley Ball 2; Baseball 3, Winter Sports 2, 3, 4, Captain 4; Track 2; Tennis 3, 4; Gym Meet 3, 4.

The girl with the big brown eyes,
With the look that is far away,—
The girl who lives in the future of dreams
And has very little to say.
At helpfulness, study, or quiet fun,
Whatever she does is always well done.

MARK SPAULDING RAND, A.B.

"Peter"

North Anson, Maine

Born July 19, 1906; Anson Academy; Cosmos Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A.; Press Club; Student Board; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Winter Sports Team 2, 3, 4; Tennis Team 3; Golf Club; Varsity Club.

Our Mark like the great Mark has made
His mark supreme in many fields,—
In winter sports he made the grade,
In tennis a mean racket wields,
His tongue provides for him a sure defense
Against unfortunates who give offense.

DAVID TOBIAS RAY, B.S.

"Dave"

West Chester, Pennsylvania

Born March 21, 1906; West Chester High School; Varsity Football 2, 3, 4; Varsity Track 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Club 2, 3, 4; Glee Club; Outing Club; Y. M. C. A.

Well, Dave, the pigskin's gone at last—
The track shoe's on the shelf—
The Glee Club's fading in the past—
And all you have's yourself.
But from our memories we're never free
And never forget the things that used to be.

THELMA NORETA RICH, A.B.

Auburn, Maine

Born November 19, 1907; Edward Little High School; Entre Nous; Lambda Alpha 2, 3, 4; Deutscher Verein 4; Phil-Hellenic 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A.; "B" Girl; Hockey 1, 2; Soccer 1, 2, 3; Volley Ball 1, 2, 3; Hiking 1, 2, 3, 4; Gym Meet 1, 2, 3.

A bright and smiling face you see
An attractive maid is she.
Nifty accessories—more than her share
From classy French heels to pretty red hair.
Add a good sport through and through,—
May we present Thelma Rich to you!

BOYD SIMONDS RICHARDSON, A.B.

"Hec"

Whitefield, New Hampshire

Born November 16, 1905; Whitefield High School; Band 1, 2; Track 1, 2, 3, 4; Ivy Day Committee; Varsity Club 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A.; Bobcat Board 3.

Our "Hec" is a track man of renown,
 Although at times he's fallen down
 Upon our cinder track!
 A subtle humor and a smile
 He carries with him all the while;—
 True friends he'll never lack.

ELIZABETH ABBOTT RIDINGS, A.B.

"Beth"

Methuen, Massachusetts

Born September 8, 1906; Lawrence and Methuen High Schools; Entre Nous; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; Numerals 2; "B" Sweater 3; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Choir 4.

And may you "row" your way against
 The running stream of life,
 As gently and as sweetly then,
 When you're a dainty wife
 As you have "rowed" amongst us here
 Our merry Beth—our pretty dear!

OLIVE CUMMIE ROBINSON, A.B.

Auburn, Maine

Born March 8, 1907; Edward Little High School; Lambda Alpha 2, 3, 4; Deutscher Verein 3, 4; Outing Club 2, 3, 4; Archery 3, 4; Basketball 3, 4; Volley Ball 3; Soccer 3; Hiking 4; Numerals.

A loyal attendant at every game—
 Football, hockey, or track.
 Whatever the weather, she's there just the same
 The various Bates teams to back.
 She started at Colby; she's loyal to Bates—
 The College, its teams, and all of her mates.

STANLEY HANSON ROWE, B.S.

"Hypic", "Stan"

Auburn, Maine

Born June 1, 1905; Edward Little High School and Hebron Academy; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Track Team 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Marshall 3; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4.

That noble form,—that wavy hair!
 With Hypic none can compare;—
 His type is all the rage.
 A trackman of no little fame,
 Though now a co-ed seems to claim
 The center of his stage!

LOUIS JOSEPH ROY, B.S.

"Joe"

Norway, Maine

Born May 4, 1905; Norway High School; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4.

A "bug" on basketball is Joe,—
There is no rule he does not know;—
A good official, he
And clever player on the court
Although he is the quiet sort
And shuns publicity.

MARGARET HOLMES RYDER, A.B.

"Bud"

Cedar Grove, Maine

Born June 1, 1907; Eastport High School, Bridge Academy, Oak Grove Seminary; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Entre Nous; Alethea 2, 3, President 3; Ramsdell Scientific Society 3, 4; Hockey 3, 4; Soccer 3; Gym Meet 2, 3; Baseball 3; Winter Sports 2; Numerals 2; "B" Sweater 3.

She's a rather small lassie
With eyes of bright blue—
Sometimes very thoughtful,—
Perhaps a twinkle, too.
Conscientious? Very; and the owner of a "B"
Rather much an all round girl it is plain to see.

EUGENE FERNALD SAWYER, B.S.

"Gene"

Gray, Maine

Born March 5, 1906; Pennell Institute; Mathematics Assistant 3; Chemistry Assistant 3; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Jordan Scientific Society.

Gene has a scientific mind;—
For everything he tries to find
Some brand new reason "why".
A most attractive lad, although
With girls he does not often go
And acts reserved and shy.

MARION LOUISE SKILLINGS, A.B.

Auburn, Maine

Born May 24, 1906; Edward Little High School; Entre Nous; Lambda Alpha 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Student Social Function Committee 3; Gym Meet 1, 2, 3; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Choir 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4, President 3; Orphic Society 1, 2, 3, 4, President 4; Macfarlane Club 3, 4; Deutscher Verein 3, 4.

A talented musician she,
And with a personality
That makes her burden light.
We like her conversation gay
And if she chance to smile our way
The day seems much more bright.

BEATRICE ANNE SMALL, A.B.

"Beezer"

Mars Hill, Maine

Born February 1, 1907; Aroostook Central Institute; Entre Nous; LeCercle Francais 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Vice-President 4; Sophomore Prize Debate; Ivy Day Speaker; Mirror Board; "B" Girl; Class Social Committee; Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4; Winter Sports 1, 2, 3; Volley Ball 1, 2, 3; Baseball 4; Soccer 1, 2, 3, 4.

Our "Bee", an athlete of renown,
Resides in some "wee" northern town,
(We do not know its name!)
A clever girl she proved to be,
Consumed with boundless industry
That puts us all to shame.

EDWARD ELLIOTT SMALL, B.S.

"Eli"

New Gloucester, Maine

Born June 11, 1907; New Gloucester, Maine; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4, Captain 4; Student Council 1, 2; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Serenely on he wends his way
The same tomorrow as today,—
Complacent, modest, true.
Our baseball captain and a star
Whose golden worth should take him far
In aught he wants to do.

WALTER JOSEPH STAHURA, B.S.

"Stag", "Joe"

Seymour, Connecticut

Born July 26, 1907; Seymour High School; Orphic Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; German Club 4; Cross-Country Squad 2, 3, 4; Bates Band 1, 2, 3, 4, Leader 2; Freshman Football; Men's Orchestra 1, 2.

With face so peaceful, sweet, and bland,
Friend "Stag" proceeds to shake the hand
Of each dear Prof. he knows.
In chemistry he knows his "stuff";
Though his concoctions prove quite rough
Upon East Parker's nose!

CAROLYN NAOMI STANLEY, A.B.

"Cal"

Kezar Falls, Maine

Born February 18, 1907; Porter High School; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Entre Nous; Christmas Bazaar 2, 3, 4; Deutscher Verein 4.

Comfy and sociable,
Good-natured, too;
Cal is a good sport
Through and through.
A serious girl she seems at first glance;
But a smile breaks through at every chance.

ELIZABETH JEANNETTE STEVENS, A.B.

"Betty"

Portland, Maine

Born September 27, 1906; Deering High School; Entre Nous; Y. W. C. A.; Orphic Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Politics Club; Ramsdell Scientific Society; Lambda Alpha 2; Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4; Hiking 1, 2; Volley Ball 1; Baseball 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4, Captain 4; Soccer 1, 2; Archery 3, 4; Tennis 1, 2, 3, 4; "B" Sweater 2; Medal 3; Chairman Y. W. C. A. Bazaar 4; Class Pin Committee, Ivy Prom Committee; Gym Fund Committee; Sophomore Prize Speaking; W. A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Manager of Archery and Volley Ball 3; Manager of Tennis 4.

Your numerous activities
We'll call stupendous, if you please;—
No field did you ignore.
Athletics played a major role
Till co-education took its toll
And Cupid gained the floor.

FLORA ELECTA TARR, A.B.

Farmington, Maine

Born October 5, 1905; Choir 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 2, 3, 4; Social Service Committee 3; Le Cercle Francais 3, 4; Secretary of Glee Club 4; Secretary of Le Cercle Francais 4; Outing Club 2, 3, 4; Gym Meet 2, 3.

From Farmington Flora came along,—
She brought a smile and a cheery song,
A store of patience and lots of tact;
She has filled her mind with many a fact.
When Flora presides over classes in school
We envy the favored ones under her rule.

SHAW TAYLOR, B.S.

Roxbury, Maine

Born October 23, 1905; Stephens High School; Outing Club; Y. M. C. A.; Assistant in Mathematics.

Deep voice, broad grin, and wavy hair,—
A noble virile youth!
With you in Math none could compare,—
Thus Wilkins thinks—forsooth!
But be not faint of heart, my friend,
At Bates you'll be a wonder in the end!

EUNICE GERTRUDE TIBBETTS, A.B.

"Tibby"

Mt. Vernon, Maine

Born December 28, 1906; Standish High School; Entre Nous; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; "B" and Numerals; Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4; Hiking 1, 2; Volley Ball 1, 2, Captain 1; Soccer 1, 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3; Baseball 3, Captain.

Four years brought a change to her
From carefree ways,
Brought a dignity and poise
Not of Freshman days.
Carlton's responsible,—of that we are sure,—
We hope that their happiness long may endure.

KATHARINE SYBIL TUBBS, A.B.

"Teddy"

Lewiston, Maine

Born November 17, 1907; Jordan High School; Y. W. C. A.; Entre Nous; Orphic Society 1, 2; Aetha 2, 3; Macfarlane 2, 3, 4; Secretary 4; Phil-Hellenic 2, 3, 4; Social Functions Committee 3; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; A. A. Board; Winter Sports Manager 4; Hockey 1, 3; Volley Ball 1, 2, 3, 4; Winter Sports 1, 2, 3, 4; Captain 2, Manager 4; Track 1, 2, Captain 2; Tennis 1, 2; Numerals; "B"; Freshman Prize Speaking; Sophomore Prize Speaking; Junior Oration; Assistant in Latin 4; Lambda Alpha; Greek Prize 1; Scholarship 2, 3.

You do not cheer and wildly shout
Concerning things you are about
But do them just the same.
In scholarship you do excel;
Your outside work's done just as well,—
You live up to your name.

WALTER FRANCIS ULMER, B.S.

"Walt"

Bangor, Maine

Bangor High School and Maine Central Institute; Captain Freshman Football; Varsity Football 2, 3, 4; Freshman Prize Speaking; Debating Council 3, 4; Student Council 1, 2, Secretary-Treasurer 3, President 4; Outing Club Director 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Club 2, 3, 4; Publishing Association; President Athletic Association; Class President 3, 4; Jordan Scientific 3, 4; Sophomore Prize Debate; Commons Committee 4; Ivy Day Speaker.

We feel quite sure that Walter will be great
That fame and fortune are to be his fate;
For to one steady purpose he is true;
To finish well what'er he starts to do.
So "Twenty-Eight" will cheer him to the end,
Our helper, worker, leader, and our friend.

FRANK CHARLES VALENTI, A.B.

"Val", "Tony", "Pete"

Manchester, Connecticut

Born October 28, 1905; Manchester High School; Y. M. C. A.; Outing Club.

The Nutmeg State sent "Val" to Maine,
And Bates will send him back again
With an A.B. degree.
He keeps East Parker from its sleep
Though in each course he seems to keep
The gentleman grade of "C"!

MAXWELL ARTHUR HEATHER WAKELY, A.B.

"Max"

Rumford, Maine

Born June 7, 1907; Stephens High School; Track 1, 2, 3, Captain 4; Cross-Country 3; Debating 2, 4; Debating Council 2, 3, Secretary 4; Varsity Club 2, 3, Secretary 4; Varsity Play 3; 4A Players 3, Vice-President 4; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet 3; Politics Club 2, 3, 4; Assistant in Geology 4; Honor Work 4; Athletic Council 4; Freshman Prize Speaking; Ivy Day Speaker.

A long, bespectacled Dapper-Dan,—
From Rumford braes this lady's man.
Lover and scholar and track-man, too,
Who trained on languishing eyes of blue.
Off with the gun,—and first to break
The tape of success that life will make!

DWIGHT EDWARD WALSH, A.B.

"Walshie", "Tripod"
Waterboro, Maine

Born May 16, 1905; Gardiner, Waterboro, and Westbrook High Schools; Freshman Football; Freshman Football Manager 3; Varsity Football Manager 4; Freshman Hockey; Winter Sports 3, 4; Orphic Society 1, 2, Manager 3; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2; Men's Orchestra 1, 2; Manager 1; French Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; French Plays 3, 4; Bates Student 2, 3, Business Manager 4; Mirror Board 4; Varsity Club 4.

That's Dwight's a business man is our decree;
His rapid rise to fortune we forsee.
As football manager he has no peer,
And with the "Student" had a fine career;
And though co-education has him snared,
We credit him with being one "who dared."

OLE THEODORE WANDRUP, A.B.

"Ole Teddy"

Brooklyn, New York

Born February 9, 1905; Goodwill High School; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Football; Football Squad 2, 3; Track Squad 1, 2, 3, 4.

"Ole Teddy" is a natural blonde
Whose rare good-nature makes us fond
Of him;—and make us see
His quiet unassuming way
Is just the same in work and play,
In fortune and adversity.

HERMAN HOWARD WARDWELL, B.S.

"Wardie"

West Paris, Maine

Born June 2, 1907; Hebron Academy; Outing Club 1, 2, Vice-President 3, President 4; Varsity Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Athletic Council 3, 4; Student Council 4; Class Treasurer 3; Cross-Country 2, 3, 4, Captain 4; Track 1, 2, 3, 4; Curriculum Committee 4.

Diminutive but versatile
Our Wardie's proved to be;
Cross-country, track, and relays fill
Each moment he has free
From his co-education course at Rand
Which seems to have him ever in demand!

ALFRED CHESTER WEBBER, B.S.

"Al"

Lisbon Falls, Maine

Born October 10, 1907; Lisbon Falls High School; Le Cercle Francais, 2, 3 Vice-President 4; Manager of French Plays 3, 4; Jordan Scientific 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Physics Assistant 3, 4; Orphic Society 3, 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Honor Student 4; Band 3, 4.

Your Physics and the French Club Play
Have kept you busy every day;—
The band takes some time, too.
You seem to rush from morn till night
And day by day you grow more bright;—
What will become of you?

MARION ELOISE WEST, A.B.

"Mo!"

Lewiston, Maine

Born April 26, 1907; Jordan High School; Sodalitas Latina 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Entre Nous; Lambda 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4.

Marion never would tell you
A bit about herself; you know
At cards and studies she wins her due;
But hush,— a secret we'll tell, —so—
She's the finest cook in all our class
As a queen of the kitchen, no one can surpass.

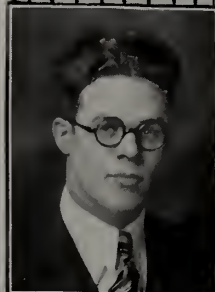

HOWARD STINSON WHITE, B.S.

"Whitie"

Belmont, Massachusetts

Belmont High School; Freshman Football; Freshman Hockey; Varsity Football 2, 3, 4; Varsity Hockey 2, 3, Captain 4; Student Council 3, 4; Varsity Club 2, 3, 4; Jordan Scientific 3, 4; Business Manager of Mirror 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 4.

The Hockey Captain now comes into view,
Of whom we'll try to make our portrait true.
A business man,—the Shylock of the Class,
Who rapidly a fortune will amass.
Then, too, he is man, discreet and sly,
And always has the motto, "High and Dry."

BRIGGS THOMAS WHITEHOUSE, A.B.

"Briggys"

Portland, Maine

Born November 13, 1904; Portland High School; Phil-Hellenic 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Prize Speaking; Men's Politics Club 2, 3, 4; Managing Editor of the "Student" 3; Debating Council 2, 3, 4; Varsity Debater 2, 3, 4; Student Staff 2, 3, 4; Honor Student 4.

One word: Aristocrat.
One purpose: Fame.
One vision: Power to do.
One love: His name.
One virtue: Depth of thought.
One tenet: "Mind has wrought...."

KATHERINE LEONA WHITMAN, A.B.

"Kay"

Old Orchard, Maine

Born October 3, 1905; Old Orchard High School; Y. W. C. A.; Outing Club; Golf Club 3; Politics Club 3, Vice-President 4; Spofford Club 3, 4, Secretary 4; Bobcat Board 3.

Persuasively, with silken voice,
She argues for her way,
And the poor professors have no choice
But to take what she may say.
A clever English student she,
Though temperamental as can be.

MYLES LEWIS WIDBER, A.B.

Auburn, Maine

Born April 2, 1906; Edward Little High School; Deutscher Verein; La Petite Academie; Y. M. C. A.; Outing Club.

Fair Auburn is the home of Myles,
Whose face is always wreathed in smiles;—
A cheerful lad, 'tis true,—
A trifle modest and reserved,
But greatly liked, as he deserved,
By prof and classmate too.

AMELIA ELIZABETH WOOD, A.B.

"Amie"

Newcastle, Maine

Born November 13, 1906; Lincoln Academy; Bates Student 2, 3, 4; Bates Bobcat 2, 3; Lambda Alpha 2, 3; Entre Nous; Y. W. C. A.; Outing Club; "B" Girl; Ivy Ode.

She can write a story,
A poem or a song
For any publication
And either short or long
We wish for her a future, that is bright and very gay:
Amelia Wood, the author,—that's what we would like to say.

WILLIAM EVERETT WOOD, A.B.

"Ev", "Woody"

Turners Falls, Massachusetts

Born March 19, 1906; Cushing Academy; Class Treasurer 1; Bobcat Board 3; Spofford Club 3, 4; Mirror Board 4.

Two wistful eyes of blue go dreaming on,
As though they see some rare phenomenon;—
Dry humor and a Massachusetts twang,—
An attitude of "Let the world go hang!"
Street-Cleaners' delegate depicts him quite:
'Tis said his by-word has become, "a-Wright"!

CATHARINE EUDORA WOODSUM, A.B.

"Kay"

Mechanic Falls, Maine

Born June 27, 1905; Mechanic Falls High School; Lambda Alpha; Y. W. C. A.; Outing Club.

We see her for so short a while
We really do not know
The things that lie behind her smile
As she goes to and fro
Artistic ability lies in her hands,
Creating ideas at her commands.

CLIFTON MELVILLE WYMAN, B.S.

"Cliff"

Brunswick, Maine

Born September 30, 1906; North Berwick High School; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Outing Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Assistant Baseball Manager 3; Baseball Manager 4; Varsity Club 4.

Cliff manages the baseball team
And though the players, it would seem,
Think he can use his head,—
He keeps East Parker up all night
With fiendish plans, (that he calls bright)
For waking up the dead!

JOSEPH KOSHIMI YAMAGIWA, A.B.

"Yam"

Seattle, Washington

Born September 9, 1906; Broadway High School of Seattle; Student 2, Sporting Editor 3; Spofford Club 3, 4; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet 4; Outing Club Director 4; Physical Education Assistant 4; Athletic Editor of Bates Alumnus, Honor Student.

Koshimi came our second year
And since that time has proved to be
An English student without peer
And wearer of the Phi Bete Key.
He has been active in so many things
He well deserves whate'er reward it brings.

In Memoriam

ROBERT MALCOLM FURNANS, B.S.

"Bob"

New Bedford, Massachusetts

During this last semester of our Senior year we have missed Bob's rare good nature and loyal friendship. He was a man who could rely upon his real self to gather about him a group of sincere friends; and the sadness at his loss is not confined to his own class alone, but is felt by all who knew him and had come to appreciate his sterling character. We shall treasure the memories of him that shall always endure in our hearts.

ALONZO OSWELL BROWN, A.B.

Portland, Maine

In the death of Oswald Brown the Class of 1928 not only lost a brilliant student but a man with integrity of character and sincerity of purpose. He was an able debater and a brilliant student in Physics and Mathematics and but for his ill health would undoubtedly have distinguished himself in other fields. Those who knew Oswald found in him a real friend and shall remember him for the true-ness of his nature.

Class Poem, 1928

“LOYAL TO THE ROYAL IN THYSELF”

“Beware”, they said, “ ’twill hurt the cause to say”.
“I care not”, cried the youth, “ ’tis all my own.
I shall not cower at the crowd’s command.
What tho they shout the word’s a lie, and time
Will haste the open grave for me. I know
That in the days before my hour shall come
I shall go on and speak the truth to men.
What tho the blow of critic’s lash fall hard,
Have I not courage, strength, and power from God
Unseen, to bear me in that hour? I know
The martyr to a cause must live a life
Alone, when all friends fail, when men will lie
And cheat. My task is laid upon my soul”.
The lad, before the throng, undaunted stood,
Of cowards lying in the face of truth.
Each minute dragged, a brief eternity.
Would no one brave the truth and follow him?
Yes,—in the years when he is gone,—they will.
They’ll crown his statue, cheer his living name,
And call him great, forgetting how they once
Did spurn him so.—He thot of this,
And smiled, and kept his faith.

KATHARINE S. TUBBS

Class Ode, 1928

'Tis the moment of parting, dear Mother, the starting
Of journeys we may not retrace,
Your blessing—the last. May its memory cast
Our lives in your image of grace.

Though the mists of tomorrow envelop with sorrow
These eyes that are gleaming to-day
With the honor you brought us, the love that you taught us
Will fashion our hearts to say:

Mother of Virtue, Mother of Men,
Hold us to your breast again!

Though the turn of the wheel with its laughing squeal
Shall point to the hoyden, fame,
We will mock the jest and its tinsel, lest
A gold-scorched soul exclaim:

Mother of Virtue, Mother of Men,
Hold us to your breast again!

E. GEORGE CLOUTIER

High Lights of History

1924

- September 25. Bates was richly blessed by the decision of the Class of 1928 to enter this institution.
- September 26. 1928 took the Annual Freshman ride, inspecting the fish hatcheries and consuming no little amount of cider.
- September 27. The little boys and girls of 1928 enjoyed a lovely evening at Chase Hall in which certain flirtations were advanced just far enough to make total abstinence from coeducation impossible until after Thanksgiving.
- September 29. 1928 was cheated out of a baseball game by the Sophomres.
- September 30. We treated the town of Lewiston to a rare display of different colored pajamas,—with a nightshirt or two for variety.
- October 24. Dud Davis ran true to form and won the Class Tennis Championship.
- October. 15 glorious martyrs suffered the infamies of a paddling party on Garcelon Field which was instigated by their inferiors, the Sophomores. 1928 was freed from bondage because of the indecorous conduct of '27.
- November 1. Saturday night dancing has at last been permitted to continue until 11.00!
- November 11. The Bates Football Team demolished the Colby Mule 13-0.
- December 1. The Bobcat was chosen as the official totem for Bates.
- December 5. Three 1928 students, Betty Dingley, George McGoldrick, and Charles Gupstill were chosen for parts in the Varsity Play.
- December. The Henry Rich Memorial Cabin was completed.

- January 15. Our dramatists acquitted themselves nobly in the presentation of "The Torch Bearers".
- January 24. The sun underwent a total eclipse and only the unusual brilliance of the Freshman Class illuminated the Campus.
- January 26. The Class of 1928 Basketball Team clinched the Class Championship without a single defeat in six games.
- January 31. The Relay Team won their race against Amherst at the B. A. A. Games. Herman Howard Wardwell, '28, was victorious in the mile run.
- February 7. The Winter Sports Team won the Maine Intercollegiate Title.
- March 3. The inimitable coeds of 1928 carried off the honors in the Inter-class Winter Sports Meet.
- March 7. John Hooper and Marion Carll won the Freshman Prize Speaking contest.
- March 24. The 1928 girls again proved their superiority over all other groups of Bates feminine athletes by capturing the Gym Meet.
- April 7. During Easter Recess an ugly iron fence had been erected in front of Parker; but it was rapidly transferred to Prexy's and Pom's by a mob of Parkerites who were concerned for the beauty of Parker.

B MIRROR 28

- April 25. Bates Relay Teams captured two races at the Penn Relays and proved to be the sensation of the meet.
- May 9. The Bates Debating Team left for a trip to England.
- May 16. The Track team lost the State Meet to Bowdoin by ONE Point!
- May 26. The celebration over a baseball victory against Colby was so heated that large portions of Garcelon Field Fence and two ticket booths were effected by spontaneous combustion. The next morning Bob McDonald was seen in the ruins salvaging some of the nails!
- June 2. The Baseball team captured the State Championship and as was true the preceding week, the heated celebrating caused a delightful conflagration in the Barn,—alias Church,—alias Bates Gym which was estimated as worth nearly $30,000. However, we reckon any insurance that may be collected will be velvet in the innermost opinion of the Bursar.

- September. The Class of 1928 returned to the campus as monarch of all it surveyed and intent upon lending the Class of 1929 a helping hand.
- September 24. Dean Pope made her first appearance in chapel and proved a real source of inspiration to the men.
- September 28. The 1928 baseball team gave a lesson in fielding and batting to the infants of 1929.
- September 29. In the Tug-of-War, the Sophomores showed graphically that the door of success is labelled "Pull". 1928 also enjoyed the Pajama parade rather more than that function of the previous year.
- October 12. Bates met Oxford in a debate on the Prohibition question. (It was not a "wet" affair.)
- October 31. Bates won an unforgettable victory over Bowdoin on the gridiron by a 7-6 score. The winning touchdown and point were scored with less than a minute to play.
- November 14. Miss Katharine Tubbs and Mr. John Davis won the Sophomore Prize Speaking contest.
- November 16. The Bates Cross-Country Team won the New England Championship. Stillman Hobbs and Howard Wardwell of '28 were members of the team.
- November 21. The Sophomore Football team trounced the Freshmen, as expected.
- December 14. The cornerstone of the Athletic Building was laid with the entire student body and others as spectators. It was a significant step in Bates athletics.

1926

- January 14. Marion Garcelon and Roger Evans of 1928 took the leading roles in the Varsity Play, "The Youngest".
- February 6. The Bates Relay team snared its fifth successive victory in the B. A. A. games.
- February 13. Bates won the annual Maine Intercollegiate Winter Sports Meet.
- February 24. In the passing on of "Monie" Hartshorn Bates lost a beloved professor and a national figure in English Literature.
- March. "Mig" Morris, '28, was chosen as the "strong woman" of the college.

B MIRROR 28

- March 5. The 1928 co-eds took the inter-class Winter Sports meet.
- March 21. Due to a general run-down condition of the students, caused by the driving methods of the Professors, the College was forced to close for the Spring Recess a week earlier than usual.
- March. The Sophomores won the Inter-Class track meet.
- April 22. 1928 held its banquet at the DeWitt Hotel.
- April 22. The New England Women's Student Government Association opened a three-day conference on the Bates Campus.
- April 24. The Bates Mile Relay Team won its fifth consecutive victory in the Penn Relays at Philadelphia.
- April 30. Max Wakely, Charles Guptill, and John Davis won a debate against Penn on the question of compulsory R. O. T. C. training in colleges.
- May 19. The 1928 co-eds lifted their voices with such "wim, wigor, and witality" that they could not be denied and consequently they carried off premier honors in the Song Singing contest held on Mt. David.
- May. The track team took second place in the State Meet and third place in the New England Intercollegiates.

1926

- September. Parker Hall was beautified by the addition of a veranda.
With the introduction of Archery we find the co-eds in active competition with Dan Cupid.
A Freshman Week program was successfully introduced for the purpose of allowing the new men and women to adjust themselves.
- October 8. The annual announcement that the Commons is bigger and better was made with the customary amusement being registered by those who "know".
- October 21. Bates defeated Oxford at Portland in the annual debate.
- October 29. Bates won the State Championship Cross-Country Meet by one point.
- November 17. 1928 won the Archery Championship.
- December 4. The Police, after a brave sortie into J. B. retreated totally beaten and without any incriminating evidence to substantiate the theory that there are kleptomaniacs on our campus.
- December 11. The 1928 Class Track Team romped to an easy victory over the other classes to win the annual track and field meet.

1927

- January 6. The first Student Assembly in Bates History was held.
- January 13. Marion Garcelon and Max Wakely ably represented 1928 in leading roles of the varsity play, "The Dover Road".
- January 15. The first Outing Club Circus proved to be a huge success.
- January. The College kindly warned us that along with other boosting that is being done for Bates, the tuition would be boosted in the Fall.
- January. West Parker tried the grandstand stunt of dashing to Rand Hall in the middle of the night to extinguish a fire that evidently originated and burned—only in the mind of some East Parkerite.
- January 22. The Orphic Society presented a Pop Concert which was a novelty on the Bates Campus.

B MIRROR 28

- February 5. Bates won its sixth consecutive B. A. A. Relay race, with Max Wakely and Hec Richardson of 1928 running for Bates.
- February 14. The Women's locker building was formally put into use.
- February 23. Bates defeated George Washington University in a debate. John F. Davis, '28, was one of the members of the Bates team.
- March 9. The 1928 Basketball team won the College Championship.
- March 16. President Gray is credited with having won the debate with Clarence Darrow on "Is Man a Machine?" However, it is our personal opinion that Clarence, at least, isn't convinced.
- March. It was discovered by the bureau of vital statistics that the Professors were downright pagans when it came to attending chapel.
- March. The Bates Hockey team won the Maine Championship.
- March 25. The Co-ed debaters returned from a victorious trip through Canada. Clara Parnell, '28, was a member of the team.
- April. Vitriolic and viturperous pens made parts of Portland and parts of the Campus rather warm with possibilities of becoming warmer.
- April 30. Bates collected its sixth consecutive victory at the Penn Relays; and three '28 men, Max Wakely, Howard Wardwell, and Hec Richardson competed.
- May 26. The Y. W. C. A. presented a May Festival which was attended by a great number of town people as well as the student body.
- June. The Class of 1928 held a banquet at the DeWitt which is believed to be the first co-educational affair of its kind ever held.
- June 6. Our Ivy Day! It needs no description—we shall never forget it.
- June 6. The Ivy Hop was another precedent established by the Class of 1928, in that it was arranged for the dance to last until 1.00 A.M.

- September. The Class of 1928 started upon its final lap of the four year grind.
- October 24. Charles Guptill, John Davis, and Ralph Blagden successfully debated against a representative team from England.
- October 29. Football: Bates 0 Bowdoin 0.
- November 21. Arland Jenkins, Briggs Whitehouse, and Mervin Ames of the Senior Class defeated University of Pennsylvania in a debate of the abrogation of treaties that infringe upon the sovereignty of China.
- November 30. The Senior Class practically unanimously voted to dedicate the 1928 Mirror to Dr. Frank Dean Tubbs, A.M., S.T.D.
- December. H. W. Oviatt Jr. and W. Everett Wood of the Class of 1928 placed first and second in an eleven day record-breaking non-sleep achievement. The times were: 2 hours, thirty-eight minutes, twenty-four seconds sleep per night for twelve days; and three hours 22 minutes flat—both being better than the record established last year of 4 hours per night.
- December 9. Lambda Alpha presented their annual Vaudeville Night. "The Death of the Bobcat" was immortalized at that time.
- December. Charles Guptill, '28, John Davis, '28, and Mervin Ames, '28 have been definitely chosen for the World Debating tour.
- December 15. The Class of 1928 won their fourth consecutive inter-class track meet.

1928

- January 21. The Outing Club held their second annual Circus in the Athletic Building.
- January 28. The Y. W. C. A. presented a Minstrel Show and Dance.
- February 4. Bates won a double victory and made their list one of seven consecutive victorious years at the B. A. A. games. Wakely, Wardwell, Richardson, and Coleman were the Seniors who ran.
- February 9. East and West Parker held their annual hockey game on the hockey rink. No decision was given;—that is to be published!
- February 9. Rand Hall held open house for the first time in four years. It certainly takes them longer to clean up than it does the Parker boys!
- February 21. The Governor spoke before the Politics Club. It was his first campaign speech for a chair in the Senate.
- February 22. Bates walked away with another Winter Sports meet. It is getting to be a habit.
- March 3. Bates defeated Maine in a dual track meet.
- March 24. The Bates Alumni Gym was formally opened with a brilliant dance and cabaret which was managed by a Gym Fund Committee from the Senior Class.
- April 12. Charles Guptill debated for the last time on the Bates Campus when he debated against the Porto Rico team.
- April 19. Musical Clubs gave a recital before the Portland Alumni.
- April 23. The 4A Players successfully sponsored the production of the annual Varsity Play after the College had refused its backing.
- April 24. For the first time a mixed debating team represented Bates. Miss Clara Parnell and John Davis of the Senior Class represented Bates against Northwestern.
- April 28. Bates became the American National Champions in the Two Mile Relay by defeating Harvard and other prominent colleges in the Penn Relays.
- May 10. The Round-the-World Debaters, all Seniors, left Lewiston after a great meeting of recognition the previous night.

Officers of the Class of 1929

President, PHILIP ELZEAR TETREAU

Vice-President, MARY PENDLEBURY

Treasurer, FRANK FORREST COLBURN, JR.

Secretary, FRANCES ELIZABETH MAGUIRE

The Class of 1929 has finally won that enviable title of "Upperclassmen" and can gaze down benignantly upon the struggling classes below them. It will be a comparatively short time before they start on the last lap of their college race with all the responsibilities that characterize Seniors upon their shoulders.

This has been a busy year for Juniors in athletic and literary circles for they are even now beginning to assume the reins that the 1928 men and women are reluctantly giving up. We are confident that they will uphold the Senior tradition of "doing all things well."

Class of 1930

Officers

President, CHARLES CLEMENT CUSHING

Vice-President, DOROTHY MARGARET SMALL

Secretary, LYDIA MAY PRATT

Treasurer, DAVID KEITH SPOFFORD

The Class of 1930 has cast off his metal and physical swaddling clothes and with the royal robes of the Sophomore Class upon it, proceeds to take up the serious business of making a name for itself.

Thus far they have acquitted themselves nobly in whatsoever they have undertaken and made valuable contributions to all the fields of extra-curricula activities as well as to the scholastic life of Bates.

They handled the Freshman initiation with unusual efficiency due to the unceasing efforts of President Cushing and have certainly placed their right foot forward in an attempt to gain honor and prestige as a Class.

There appears to be a loyal and enthusiastic spirit in the present Sophomore Class which should aid the class as a whole to uphold the Bates traditions and ideals.

Sophomore Prize Speaking

In the annual Sophomore Prize Speaking Contest, held in Hathorn Hall, Livingston Lomas of Lowell, Mass., and Miss Emma Meservey of Lewiston, Maine, were adjudged the best speakers. The entire program was excellently done.

Freshmen they are, but mighty good ones! The Class of 1931 promises to make a name for itself in more ways than one before they walk down the aisle for their sheepskins. In athletics, in debating, and in literary activities there seem to be many that are competent of filling the places made vacant by graduating classes, and the manner in which they have co-operated in supporting Bates customs and traditions makes it extremely likely that succeeding classes will be required to do the same.

Freshman Prize Speaking

Norman J. Coulombe of Berlin, N. H., and Miss Dorothy Morse of Canton, Maine, were the winners of this year's Freshman Prize Speaking Contest which was an unusually brilliant and closely contested one.

One of the most active organizations on the campus since its birth in 1910. The membership is comprised of all male members of the student body who are in good standing. It has been the purpose of the organization to promote college spirit and to encourage a policy of co-operation between the faculty and student body. Two chapels each month are devoted to the business of the Student Assembly.

The officers of the Student Council are the officers of the Student Assembly who are elected by popular vote each year.

The Council has rapidly developed into one of the most important organizations on the Campus and it is to them that all matters pertaining to the student body as a whole are referred. President Ulmer and his associates have made this year a very successful and satisfactory one for all concerned.

Since 1921, when under the leadership of Dean Niles, Student Government replaced faculty rule, the organization has continued to develop. It is now one of the most vital associations on the campus. It keeps in touch with the progress of student government organizations in other colleges through its delegates to two annual conferences—one held by the Student Government Association of New England Coeducational Colleges, the other by the Women's Student Government Association of colleges in the United States (not strictly a national association).

Power is vested in a student-elected Judiciary Board, which acts in an executive as well as judiciary capacity. The chief concerns of the board are: the enforcement of college regulations, the development of responsibility and loyalty in the girls, the proper adjustment of freshmen to college life, and a sympathetic and understanding relationship between the students and faculty.

The specific work of Student Government this year has been the reorganization of house government. The new house councils thus formed have assumed social duties as well as those pertaining to the maintenance of house pride and to the enforcement of regulations within the house. In all our work this year we may feel there has been a considerable amount of progress and success.

The Commons Committee has succeeded in carrying on the work of its predecessor most admirably. The members meet frequently for the purpose of deciding upon suggestions which are presented to Miss Goodwin for approval. It has always been found difficult to satisfy the Student Body in matters pertaining to their Filling Station, but there is no doubt but that Walt Ulmer and his associates have done everything in their power to eliminate the causes for dissatisfaction.

A three-piece orchestra, comprised of Ed Milk, Walter Stahura, and Wyland Leadbetter, offer choice selections at the noon and evening meals. The hall has been redecorated recently and the new china and silverware holds out an added attraction to those who board under college supervision.

Yes, the Commons certainly has become more than a "filling station" and still further innovations and reforms are awaited by the students with unusual interest.

The Editors of the 1928 Bates Mirror sincerely hope that their publication may compare favorably with that standard which former year books have set; and that, with the experience of others before us, we may have so profited that some errors have been avoided and others eliminated.

We hope that whatsoever innovations there may be within these covers, will meet the approval of the subscribers and prove to be desirable additions. There has been much sincere effort placed upon the Mirror and it is natural that we should desire the completed work to be considered an accomplishment befitting the Class of 1928 and a book that we can proudly dedicate to Dr. Frank Dean Tubbs.

The Fifty-fifth Volume of the BATES STUDENT, under the guiding hand of the Class of 1928, was one of the most successful that was ever published. Editor Guptill established a brilliant reputation for his editorial capabilities; Managing Editor Whitehouse raised the journalistic technique to a new level; and Managers Walsh and Moulton carried on the business end of the paper more successfully than has been done for many years.

Several extra-page editions were published and the STUDENT took on more of the appearance of a College publication than ever before. The policy has been more progressive and has caused the institution of various reforms that should be a long step toward achieving a self-thinking and self-governing student body.

"Requiescat in Pace!" The solemn procession moves forward with dragging step and bowed head. The Bobcat—it was a noble animal in its day; but you know how sensitive an animal like that is to mental action and reaction, and the way in which the poor creature was received by the Faculty and "A. G. S." was sufficient to annihilate a much stronger animal than our little Bobkitten.

But we suppose that it is customary for those garbed in the robes of dignity and self-righteousness to go around with their noses on the ground, smelling for dirt—even if they are unable to find it where they want to. Might we suggest that those brilliant white robes are very apt to appear like the whited sepulchres of hypocrisy to an intelligent student body?

But some day in the far-distant future there may be a revival of learning and liberalism at Bates; The Bobcat will be resurrected; the Student body will be able to publish a magazine that is human like those of other higher institutions of learning; and our exchanges may be able to address us as Bates College instead of Bates Academy. The Swan Song is ended; rose leaves are scattered upon the casket; and we, the mourners of the deceased, bow in prayer; aye verily, verily, "Requiescat in Pace!"

The Publishing Association has general control of all student publications such as the STUDENT and the GARNET. It has been the aim of this body in the past year to revise the organization of the BATES STUDENT Board so as to meet the conditions that have arisen due to the growth and rapid development of that publication. It is hoped that the revisions will eliminate certain evils that have been present in the past and will establish a more efficient division of the labors.

During the last year the Board has made many definite improvements and have taken steps to revive the literary paper, the GARNET. This will satisfy a need that has been an urgent one for the last few years.

The "Y" Cabinet for 1927-28 was ushered into its year's work with a week-end retreat at the Sabattus Cabin. Here, 'mid the more or less prosaic atmosphere of hamburger and onions, nine committee men met with their President and General Secretary to discuss the plans for the year; these plans, of course, were augmented from time to time as the year went on; monthly cabinet meetings were held, and matters of transient interest discussed.

The committees in general, have functioned well. To James Burke and his aides for instance, goes the credit of an excellent I. M. U. R. party. Jim, again, was in charge of the many Saturday night movies and dances that have come to play so great a part in the social life of the campus.

Paul Coleman turned in a fine piece of work as manager of the Book Agency. His work with the Freshmen in the fall, particularly at the Information Tent and on the traditional Freshman Ride, was also commendable.

Howard Bull brought to the weekly meetings a group of very able speakers. William Tudor Gardiner, Rev. Milo Pearson, Rev. G. F. Finnie, Dean Stultz of Hartford Theological Seminary, G. W. Hinckley of Goodwill Farm, and Professors Tubbs, Myhrman, Berkelman and Mezzotero were only a few who left lasting impressions with the Wednesday night crowds.

"Bill" Brookes and his deputation teams had what might conventionally and properly be called "a great season". Bates speakers and musicians found their way several times to Standish, Gorham, Falmouth, Gray, Dexter, Yarmouth, Cumberland Center and other outlying towns.

The voluntary study groups of the fall were arranged by George Anderson and attended by all first year men; Professors Chase, Hovey, Mezzotero and McGown were the leaders at the different men's dorms.

Auburn Carr, Bates representative to the New England Field Council, received the distinction of being elected chairman of the Poland Springs Conference held March 2-4. Ten Bates men attended the meetings.

Walter Durost, '28, and Elbert Emery, '28, represented Bates at the Detroit Convention during the Christmas holidays, while a second "Y" project found some educational work done on the Bates-in-China movement.

As a last word some words of appreciation are due Professor McGown, who leaves his post as General Secretary this spring to go to Yale for graduate study. His willing help in all "Y" activities has been a constant fortune to the campus; he leaves behind him a host of well-wishers.

For the women of Bates College the Y. W. C. A. performs a most important part in the religious and social life of the campus. At the beginning of the college year the major part of Y. W. work is concentrated on the Freshmen. The handbook and the "Big Sister" plan are still successfully introducing the newcomers to Bates customs, traditions, and activities. Upon Y. W. falls a large part of the social functions during Freshman week. Last fall Y. W. and Y. M. gave a reception for the Freshmen, thus introducing them to Chase Hall and to the faculty. In October the Associations took the Freshmen to Lake Auburn on the Uncle Johnnie Stanton class ride, thus giving them an opportunity to form firmer friendships among themselves, to drink sweet cider at the old mill, and to co-educate for the final time until after Thanksgiving. Under the red-gold of the oaks on Mount David, the Freshmen and upper-class girls gathered one October afternoon for a jolly, get-acquainted sing. In November the Freshman Commission was elected, with Gladys Underwood as Chairman. The duties of this Commission are varied. They have charge of costumes, help in social work, and arrange chairs for the mid-week meetings. They have been dependable and ever ready workers.

One of the most active committees of the Y. W. Cabinet is that of social service. Through this committee the college association co-operates with the town association. Some of the college girls lead classes in sewing and reading for the foreign women and children; others are interested in the Girl Reserve work at Auburn. Each Sunday afternoon a group of girls visit the Old Ladies Home, where they lead short religious meetings, or spend the hour singing and talking. A new project of the committee this year has been at the Orphanage in Auburn. Several parties have been given for the children, and occasionally they have been instructed by the college girls in music, dancing, and games. Hazel Ling, who is supported by the World Fellowship fund, is now attending Yenching University. Through the talks of Miss Perkins and Priscilla Holton the girls have become more closely acquainted with our Chinese sister.

Conferences have been liberally attended by Bates delegates this year. Last spring eight girls went to Maqua. During the Christmas recess Ruth Moore and Yvonne Langlois attended the Conference at Detroit. In February, Viola Zahn was our representative at the Industrial Girls Conference at Brockton. The joint regional conference, held at Poland Spring in March, was attended by a large group from Bates. The delegates to each of these conferences have returned with increased interest and numberless suggestions for the work of the Y. W. C. A.

The most lasting memory of Y. W. for each one of its members is that of the mid-week meetings. Each Wednesday night of the year an informal group of girls has gathered before the open fire at Rand and enjoyed a dreamy hour of poetry and music or has listened to a lecture given by some worthwhile speaker. Of these speakers, those which we especially remember are Miss Marion Lounsbury, an authority on finance organization; Miss Greene, who spoke on Occupational Therapy; Priscilla Holton, who so delightfully acquainted us with Hazel Ling; and Miss Elizabeth Perkins, who related for us some of her personal experience in China.

Last spring a real May Festival was presented by the Y. W. and the W. A. A. together. It was a delightful success and it is hoped that it may be repeated in some form again this spring. Chase Hall, one day in December, was ablaze with exotic colors, for the "Carnival of Nations". Each booth was decorated to represent some nation and sold appropriate merchandise. At occasional intermissions, dances characteristic of the various nations were presented by the college girls. The co-operation of the dorm and town girls, of the faculty and the alumnae, made the annual bazaar a decided success. Another innovation this year was the Y. W. Minstrel Show presented at Hathorn Hall in January.

Each May the old and new Cabinets of the Y. W. C. A. hold a house party at which discussions and lectures help the uninitiated members to become fully acquainted with their new duties. The house party is a jolly time of work and of getting acquainted; it may always be remembered and ever be happily anticipated.

Men Debaters

For another year, in her many successful years of debating history, the outstanding distinction of Bates debating was effectively sustained. The stress this year was placed upon the selection of subjects and teams which would be both interesting and instructive from the standpoint of the audience. The questions discussed included the abrogation of the unilateral and extraterritoriality treaties with China; Prohibition; the protection of capital in the Caribbean by armed troops; Efficiency; and Democracy.

Several new features were introduced this year. The most outstanding of these was the initial meeting of the two new American teams on the forensic platform—the University of Porto Rico and the University of Phillipines to discuss the problems of the Caribbean and the Pacific respectively. The second innovation of note was the introduction of the Oregon System of debating which was given its initial trial by a Bates team against the University of Vermont. The Open Forum after debates proved real successful.

Professor F. Brooks Quimby as the new debating coach assumed full charge of the debating schedule this year for both men and women debaters. He was confronted with the difficult task of coaching teams for a full schedule of nine debates besides preparing the World Team for their tour.

Bates-National Union of Students

The debating season opened with an international debate in Portland High School Auditorium on the evening of October 24, 1927. The National Student's Union team was composed of one representative from each of three British Universities. They were: Mr. F. Ongley Davall, University of Reading; Mr. Andrew Haddon, University of Edinburgh; Mr. John Ramage, London School of Economics and Political Science. Mr. John F. Davis, '28; Mr. Ralph Blagden, '28 and Mr. Charles H. Guptill, '28, upheld the negative of the proposition, "Resolved: That Efficiency is becoming a fetish of modern society" for Bates. This was a non-decision debate.

Bates-University of Pennsylvania

The debate with the University of Pennsylvania on November 21 was the first decision debate of the year. A team composed of Mr. Arland Jenkins, '28, Mr. Briggs T. Whitehouse, '28 and Mr. Mervin L. Ames, '28 defeated University of Pennsylvania by an unanimous judges' decision, 3-0. The question for discussion was "Resolved: That all treaties which infringe on the sovereignty of China should be abrogated" with Bates arguing for abrogation.

Bates-Yale

On January 19, 1928 a team composed of Mr. John Manning, '30 with but one varsity debate to his credit and Mr. Robert Hislop, '30 and Mr. Walter Hodson, '29, both inexperienced debaters, met Yale University at New Haven on the affirmative of the proposition, "Resolved: That all nations should abandon the right of extraterritoriality in China."

Yale won by a 2-1 judges' decision.

Bates-Porto Rico

On April 12, 1928 Bates met the University of Porto Rico on the especially appropriate subject, "Resolved: That the United States should cease to protect, by armed forces, investments in the Caribbean without a formal declaration of war." This is the first Latin American college which Bates has met in her debating annals. As was fitting, the University of Porto Rico upheld the affirmative of the discussion. The Bates representatives were: Mr. Clayton White, '30, Mr. Howard Thomas, '31 and Mr. Charles H. Guptill, '28. This was a non-decision debate followed by an Open Forum.

B MIRROR 28

Bates-Northwestern

Mr. John Davis, '28 and Miss Clara Parnell, '28 the first and only mixed team, thus far, in Bates debating history, matched arguments against the Northwestern University on April 24, 1928. Prohibition was the subject of the debate with Bates upholding the Eighteenth Amendment. There was no decision. The Open Forum was again very successful.

Bates-Vermont

A team of three Seniors journeyed to Brattleboro, Vermont to meet the University of Vermont on May 8 on the affirmative of the proposition, "Resolved: That democracy is a failure." This was the first Bates team which has ever employed the Oregon System of debating. Mr. Briggs T. Whitehouse, '28 was the witness; Mr. Maxwell A. H. Wakely, '28, the examining lawyer; and Mr. Arland Jenkins, '28 the pleading lawyer. The debate was followed by a rapid-fire Open Forum.

Bates-University of Philippines

On May 10, Mr. John Manning, '30, Mr. Robert Hislop, '30, and Mr. Walter Hodsdon, '29, met the University of Philippines on the especially appropriate question of 'Philippine Independence'. This was the first time that a Bates team has met representatives from the Philippine Islands. The Philippine team was on a world debating tour and was debating Philippine independence completely around the globe. The discussion proved both valuable and stimulating to the extremely large audience which attended. An Open Forum followed the debate which gave ample opportunity for the Philipinos to more freely express their opinions.

World Tour Debaters

This year Bates entered upon the most pretentious undertaking in all her debating history—that of sending a team around the world. This marks the climax of a series of international debates with Great Britain, Australia, Porto Rico, and the Philippine Islands.

The Around-the-World Debaters will commence their extended tour on May 9, 1928, when they will leave Lewiston for San Francisco where they will embark for the Hawaiian Islands where they will meet the University of Hawaii in their first debate of the trip. The team will then proceed to New Zealand, Australia, Union of South Africa, then to England and home. In all these countries the leading universities will be met in debate on any of the following subjects: Democracy, Efficiency, China, Prohibition, and Protection of Capital.

The team is comprised of three Seniors: Mr. Charles H. Gupstill, '28; Mr. John F. Davis, '28; and Mr. Mervin L. Ames, '28. All these men are experienced in debating.

Women Debaters

The 1927-28 season marked the 5th year of intercollegiate debating for women. Three new debating relationships were formed in the women's division this year, one with Connecticut College for Women, another with the University of Maine, and still another with Northwestern University.

With interest increasing in this department steadily it is hoped that with every added year with bigger prospects in view we may soon make our girl debaters known not only throughout the nation but throughout the world as our men are.

Bates-Connecticut

On November 29, 1927, Bates College was represented at Connecticut College for Women by Miriam McMichael, Lillian Giles, and Eugenia Southard. The question debated was "Resolved: That all treaties which infringe upon the sovereignty of China should be abrogated." Bates women upheld the negative and won by a unanimous decision of the judges. The Girls were accompanied by Mrs. Gray. The reports from Connecticut were to the effect that the debate was the best ever heard in that locality.

Bates-Maine

A team composed of Yvonne Langlois, Miriam McMichael, and Eugenia Southard upheld the affirmative of the subject of our policy in Nicaragua at University of Maine on evening of February 18, 1928. Mrs. Gray accompanied the team on this trip also. Altho the decision of the judges was 2 to 1 in favor of Maine those who heard the debate say that not even the 2 to 1 decision was sufficient evidence of the real closeness of the debate. Of one fact we are assured it was a fine team and did creditable work.

Greek letter societies are not a common occurrence on the Bates campus and we are all too likely to pass by those which we do have without due recognition. Delta Sigma Rho is one of these. It is perhaps generally known on campus that Bates has a charter from the National Organization but few people perhaps realize just what membership means to those who wear the key.

According to a local ruling that key stands for many hours of sincere, hard, conscientious, work within the four walls of the Debating Room at Chase Hall, as well as elsewhere. It means this multiplied by two for eligibility depends upon participation in two debates of real consequence. While winning the decisions is not a hard and fast rule, still the grade of work done must be of a certain degree of excellence. To this fundamental requirement must of course be added qualifications regarding character and service especially in the field of and for the promotion of debating at Bates College. Let's us think for a moment what Debating means when coupled with Bates—what do Bates Debating teams mean to the nation and now to the world? What then does Delta Sigma Rho mean to Bates debaters? It is the Bates link in the golden chain of forensic friendship.

Here's a cheer then for the new members; here's one for the old members, and here's one for the alumni.

New Members: Arland Jenkins, '28; Briggs T. Whitehouse, '28; Maxwell A. H. Wakely, '28; Mervin L. Ames, '28; Walter O. Hodsdon, '29; Lillian A. Giles, '28; Yvonne L. Langlois, '29; Eugenia M. Southard, '29, and Miriam E. McMichael, '29.

Old Members: Charles H. Guptill, '28; Clara F. Parnell, '28, and John F. Davis, '28.

Alumni Members: Prof. J. M. Carroll, Prof. Brooks Quimby and Harry W. Rowe.

DRAMATICS

The Varsity Play

A dream of wild adventure and mad romance in the breast of a timidly conventional and scrupulously respectable Ambrose Applejohn—this was the motif of Hackett's "Captain Applejack." And thru this medium of light comedy, less subtle perhaps and less dramatically classic than "The Dover Road", Bates Undergraduates achieved their sixth annual dramatic success

Julian Bigelow, with his remarkably individual interpretation, his eccentric charm, his natural ability to appreciate and execute character development, was the standard par excellence of performance. His leading lady, Miss McMichael, tho less brilliant, impressed the audience favorably; and Faith Blake, as Mrs. Pengard, was a sweet revelation of dramatic power.

At the present moment Bates is in a position—that is, it has the directing ability and the abilities to be directed (viz. the acting personal)—to rival, in the field of drama, its own forensic reputation.

Deutscher Verein Plays

On Friday evening, March 9, the Verein gave the following program: Ludwig Fulda's one-act comedy "Unter vier Augen", presented in English, and Roderich Benedix's one-act comedy "Gunstige Vorzeichen", presented in German

"Unter Vier Augen", translated into English by Martha W. Fletcher and Miriam L. Morton under the title "By Ourselves" was performed in a masterly manner by Taylor D. Clough, Helen E. Abbott, Robert Bloom, Lillian A. Giles, and Donald J. Fearon. The coaching of the play was under the personal direction of M. Pauline Hill, president of the Verein. The German play, presented by Lawrence C. LeBeau, Faith L. Blake, M. Pauline Hill, Walter J. Stahura, and Ralph E. Giroux was successfully and admirably performed by the entire cast.

Under the direction of Prof. Seldon T. Crafts, the Glee Club has made seven public appearances—all of them eminently successful. They appeared before the Rotary Club at Chase Hall; at Gardiner in a public performance; at the Gym fund dance; at Portland; before the State Rotarian convention; and at Hallowell and Sabattus, both of them public performances. They were received in every place visited with tremendous enthusiasm and their success is a glorious indication of the expansion of Bates' prestige.

Music is coming to be recognized more and more as one of the essential things on Bates Campus. We have not yet the Glee Club that we are hoping to have in a few years. We want it to become known so that girls talented in music will come to Bates. The Club under the leadership of Prof. Crafts is better than it has ever been before. We are increasing our repertoire with several new numbers including selections which we sing with the men's club. The Club has given concerts for the Literary Union State Convention, the Kiwanis Club, the Baptist Church at Auburn, a Pop Concert in the new gymnasium, the Rotarians' Ladies' Night, the Rotarian Convention, and out of town concerts in Gardiner and Portland.

Organized in 1917, Macfarlane Club, named for Will Macfarlane, then municipal organist at Portland, has a membership of twenty-five students elected from the three upper classes. The program for the year is planned and printed early in the fall, so that the whole year's work is before each member.

Macfarlane opens its meetings several times a year to the faculty and students, and is gratified to see the interest shown in the regular meetings as well as in the special meetings, two of which are the annual concert and the joint concert with the Philharmonic Club, the first of which was held last year.

The College Choir is undoubtedly one of the most important organizations on our campus; at least it manages to keep itself constantly before the eyes of the student body! It aids greatly in making each chapel a pleasant one and the numerous special selections are most welcome. At such times as Christmas and Easter, special services are arranged and the general public is invited to be present. Professor Crafts should be congratulated upon the manner in which he has developed and trained the group.

The Orphic Society, at the end of this year, has completed a most successful season. This organization, which has for its purpose the increasing of musical appreciation both among its members and the public, is becoming yearly a more active society.

Especially has this group increased in its out-of-town engagements. Its campus activities have been concerts for the Rotary Club, Student Assembly, Gym Fund Cabaret, and Varsity Play—also the sponsoring of two dances.

Much credit for the success of this Society is due to Professor Seldon Crafts, head of the music department, under whose able direction the orchestra has increased both in numbers and ability.

A competent band, under excellent direction, played an important part in the campus life of this year. Turning out for every important contest, the band should be credited with more than a little of our athletic success—for it was due to their efforts and spirited performance that our college spirit has been so impressively increased. From a tiny group, indifferently successful, the Band has developed within the last two years into an organization of superlative excellence. And we and they are gratefully indebted to the patient persistence of Professor Crafts.

This Society was organized in 1910 in honor of the late Dr. Lyman Granville Jordan. The purpose of the society is to stimulate scientific thought and activity aside from that required by the curriculum. Meetings are held twice a month. An attempt is made to secure speakers who are prominent and able to discuss present day points of interest in all scientific fields, with a view to keeping in touch with recent scientific developments. Every other year the society puts on the Jordan Scientific Exhibition.

The Spofford Club was founded in 1910 by Professor Spofford of the English Department. It has been the custom to choose the members from those of the students who have displayed special interest in creative literature. In years past the club has met every week but this year the schedule has been revised so that meetings are held twice monthly. At each meeting a program is offered consisting of original material. At the time of writing this summary, a tentative plan is under way to publish a brief literary magazine under the auspices of the club.

Under the leadership of John F. Davis, the Politics Club, with its purpose of fostering a discussion of practical problems in the politico-economic field, functioned exceptionally well. As a feature of more than local interest and as a part of its expansion project, the club introduced his excellency, Governor Brewster, into the open program. The speech of the Governor with its authoritative comment on the Senatorial campaign funds and the Congressional Oil scandal was impressive in its delivery and decisive in its effect on campus sentiment.

Briggs T. Whitehouse was the sponsor of a movement which will certainly accentuate the profound influence of the club. In effect it is this: The Politics Club will publish in the newspapers and other journals those works of its members which are especially meritorious.

Although the Women's Politics Club is one of the younger organizations on campus, its program has always been a most active one. The membership is composed of those who have excelled in the political and social sciences.

The Club meets every other week for the purpose of discussing subjects that are of political and economic interest. During the past year the organization has entertained two outside speakers at their meetings; and was especially fortunate in uniting with the Men's Politics Club to hear Governor Brewster speak. For the first time in the history of the club, Sophomore members will be admitted after the Spring Recess.

The French Club is no longer known as Le Cercle Francais but as La Petite Academie. Some very interesting meetings have been held this year including the initiation meeting in the fall which was in the Women's Locker Building. The topics of music in France, the drama, literature, reconstruction of the devastated territory and French customs during the Christmas season have been discussed. The Club members presented Triste Bernard's "L'anglais tel qu'on le parle" and Labiche's "La Lettre Chargee" under the direction of Prof. Mezzotero and Mr. Sullivan.

Deutscher Verein this year has had many interesting programs presented by its Senior and Junior members. The first and third Mondays of the month have been the evenings for talks on Germany's physical characteristics, customs, music, science, and contributions to literature.

March ninth was the date of the presentation of a program in Little Theatre. This consisted of a comedy, "By Ourselves," translated from the German of Ludwig Fulda; a violin solo, Bavarian Peasant Dance, a reading and a one act play, "Gunstige Varzeichen," by Roderich Benedix presented in German.

Sodalitas Latina aims to impress every one of its members with the difficulties to Latin-teaching and the methods of procedure by which these difficulties may be most effectively overcome. As a part of its program, several practicing teachers in the field gave instructive lectures to the club. These teachers were: Miss Manning of Edward Little; Miss Murphy of Webster Grammar; and several others. In addition to these features, each member of the club presented a paper, covering a topic of particular interest around which the group discussion would revolve.

At a recent meeting the following Juniors were inducted into the organization: Ola Coffin, '29; Lucy Lundell, '29; Dorothy Nutter, '29; Ruth Skelton, '29; Evelyn Webb, '29; Mildred E. Young, '29.

The Phil-Hellenic Society was organized in 1916 for the purpose of creating an appreciation of Greek Literature, life and customs, and to encourage a feeling of friendship between the Greek Students and the Greeks of the city.

With this aim in view, programs have been arranged by Martha Fletcher with the aid of Professors Britan and Chase. Meetings are held every other week. The features of the year are the symposium and the reception to the Greeks of the city.

The Ramsdell Scientific Society was organized in 1919 by the Junior and Senior women and named for Professor Ramsdell who encouraged its formation and has always been ready to help the society in any way possible. The club is an honorary society and therefore its membership is restricted to fifteen women from the Junior and Senior classes. The candidates for election must be recommended by the heads of two science departments, or have a double recommendation from one department.

At the meetings each member responds to the roll call with an item of current interest in the field of science. There has been an effort for greater variety this year, certain meetings being devoted to particular sciences such as, Botany, Physics, and Genetics. A trip of inspection at the printing office of the Lewiston Sun-Journal was greatly enjoyed. Professor Ramsdell gave an interesting address in "Science and Religion" at the open meeting. The intricacies of the chapel organ were demonstrated by Professor Woodcock.

The Cosmos Club is vitally interested in the religious life of the College and the individual students. An attempt is made to make the meetings of the greatest possible interest; and religious problems of all kinds are discussed. Special speakers often speak to the organization concerning the missionary field and other branches of religious service.

Dr. Purinton has always been a helpful and kind advisor and has done everything in his power to co-operate with the Club in making its activities successful.

Alethea, an organization of Junior and Sophomore girls, has the two-fold purpose of promoting an interest in things literary and of providing opportunities for social activities.

One of the features of an open meeting held this year was a fanciful Pierrette and Pierrot play entitled "The End of the Rainbow". Such planned literary or dramatic meetings carry out only one of the purposes of the Club and it is such social activities as cabin parties and an excursion to Paradise Farm that make the year's program well-balanced.

Lambda Alpha was formed in the Fall of 1925 to fill the need of an organization for the off-campus girls. This year under the leadership of Miss Garcelon, the club has been very active and, as usual, sponsored the annual "Campus Night" entertainment which the organization presents with the aid of contributions from the various dormitories. This year a prize was offered to the student manager of the best stunt. This was won by Florence Kyes, representing Cheney House.

Entre Nous is the literary society open to all Freshman women. Its purpose is to provide a means not only for the expression of talents, literary, dramatic, and musical, but also for occasional social recreation. With the introduction of the inter-class dormitory system for women, Entre Nous has had an opportunity to be of perhaps new value in bringing together the Freshman women at its bi-monthly meetings.

Programs have consisted of short talks, music, readings, dramatizations, stunts, and, occasionally, parties for fun.

In spite of the fact that the weather during the Winter of 1927-28 was hardly conducive to an extensive or very successful program of Outing Club activities, the Bates Club made the most of its few opportunities and, on the whole, concluded the season most satisfactorily under the leadership of its President, Herman Howard Wardwell. The Winter Sports team has now become a definite part of the College athletic curriculum and the Outing Club is no longer responsible for sponsoring it, but this year the task fell upon the Outing Club to arrange the State Meet, which it ran in conjunction with its other activities.

The biggest Outing Club event of the year is always the Annual Carnival, and in spite of the lack of snow, the majority of intra-mural contests were run off and the program pronounced a success. The snowshoe and ski events which were scheduled for February 9th were cancelled, but on Friday the skating events were run in the afternoon with the Ice Carnival taking place in the evening. The West-East Parker epic hockey struggle was a big item of the evening entertainment with the outcome still a matter of contention. On Saturday the Freshmen played the Alumni team and the Varsity played Arcadia University as part of the program. In the evening the Carnival Hop was held at Chase Hall with the usual merry-making in evidence.

In addition to the Ninth Carnival the Outing Club gave numerous evidences of its growth and activity. It has materially increased its supply of equipment, such as skis, snowshoes, and uniforms for the Winter Sports Team.

The annual Outing Club picnic was planned at various times but inclement weather forced its postponement at every turn. There were, however, numerous parties given at the cabins at Thorncrag and at Sabattus which compensated for the disappointments.

Then came the Second Annual Circus, sponsored by the Outing Club which turned out to be a tremendous success and an event that will undoubtedly become a yearly affair. There were any number of side-shows, fortune-telling, dancing, freaks, and other things of interest where the students were privileged to spend their money. The main show, consisting of a parade of the animals, boxing matches, gym drills, and a debate were given great applause.

Each year the Outing Club undertakes a long trip to some one of the important mountains of Maine or New Hampshire and Lewis Foster, '28, is making plans for an expedition similar to those of previous years.

In the relatively few years that the Outing Club has been on the Bates Campus it has been a very active force in encouraging a love of the out-of-doors. It attempts to have a program of activities that will last throughout the year and which will include the entire student body, and the memories of our associations with it and its activities shall be precious ones.

Indoor Sports

The P. and P. Club demonstrate to Bates athletic mentors just what the true training table should be. Notice the noted examples of virile manhood that have subscribed to this system: Tennis stars, round-the-world debaters, Physics sharks, and Welshmen.

This may or may not have been an indoor sport. At least we take the liberty of listing it under that head; and to those who were deprived of the privilege of viewing the Bates barn-church-gym we take this opportunity of introducing them to it as it appeared before and after.

Bates Athletic Features for 1927-1928

Perhaps one of the most noteworthy accomplishments in the Bates Athletic year was the spectacular victory of the Garnet Two-mile Relay Team at Pennsylvania over the best quartets in the country. It brought a National Title to Bates and no little fame to the individual runners who plowed through a sea of mud to win over their nearest rival, Harvard, by over twenty yards. Two Challenge cups, a plaque, and four wrist watches were the material acquisitions resulting from the victory.

Bates also won their seventh straight victory at the Boston Athletic Association Games.

The Winter Sports team continued the ever-lengthening list of victories and State Championships. The team has never been defeated in Maine Inter-collegiate competition.

Although the Football and Hockey Teams did not establish any very imposing records for the current year, the lower classmen received some valuable experience that will add strength to the large nucleus of stars that return to college next year.

Howard S. White and Manford L. Palmer of the Senior Class can be given much praise for their versatility in winning their letter in three of the four major sports, football, baseball, and hockey. Max Wakely looms up as a track man of national prominence and El Small seems due to accomplish big things in the National Pastime.

With the addition of another Coach to the staff in the person of Mr. Reginald Threlfall, Bates has materially strengthened the possibilities of turning out a Championship Football aggregation next Fall. It is, we hope, just the beginning of a new era in Bates athletics.

The Gymnasium has been opened for dances and social functions and should be ready for a gymnastic program by next Fall. This completes the last unit of the new athletic plant which should prove to be of untold value to athletic teams of the future.

The track team placed second in the Maine Intercollegiates and third in the New Englands.

The Varsity Club has always held a position of importance upon the Bates Campus and during the past year has been unusually active in many fields that have not been entered previously. Its membership is made up of all those men on campus who have been awarded a "B" in any sport. It is undoubtedly the most influential men's organization on campus and devotes its efforts toward an extension and development of the Bates athletics in general, with a special emphasis upon interesting promising athletes in choosing Bates as their future Alma Mater.

Beginning their program early in the Fall, the Varsity Club turned its energies toward organizing the cheering section for all athletic contests with capable cheer leaders in charge. Rallies were staged for the football games and the cheers and new songs were rehearsed.

During the winter the annual Interscholastic Basketball Tournament was held in the Lewiston City Hall and was conducted entirely by the Varsity Club. The members of the organization were in charge of the various teams and had the opportunity to show their guests about the campus and through the new athletic plant. This is one of the Club's biggest undertakings of the year and "Pat" McCurdy conducted it most efficiently.

Although there has always been an effort to bring high school and prep school men to Lewiston to inspect Bates, the program has been greatly enlarged upon during the current year, and by inviting small groups at various times to witness various athletic activities, the number of prospects that have been invited has been materially increased.

During the Football season and at Carnival time the Varsity Club sponsored "Back to Bates" nights at which times special efforts were made to get as many graduates to return to the campus as possible. These get-togethers have been the source of much enjoyment and have aided in forging a definite link between the graduates and the student body. In addition to this, the Club has run three public dances and one private one. The last dance that was held under the auspices of the Varsity Club was held in the new gymnasium on the evening of the Maine Intercollegiate Track Meet. Marble's Orchestra furnished the music and a large attendance was the result of the experiment.

After the Relay Team won its great victory at Philadelphia, the Varsity Club immediately took charge of plans for arranging a celebration for the men upon their return. Practically the entire student body went to the train to greet the victors and a great parade was staged through the main streets of Lewiston. During the day previous to the team's return the students busied themselves with collecting every possible piece of wood for a giant bonfire on Mt. David. Railroad ties, boxes, fences, and even parts of barns were drafted into use; and the result was the biggest bonfire ever built on the historic Mount. In the evening the celebration was held with speeches by Coach Jenkins and Cutts. In this and like activities the Varsity Club is an active agent in arousing College spirit.

In June the Club takes charge of the annual Interscholastic Track Meet on Garcelon Field and the competing athletes are placed in the hands of men who will show them the campus and dormitory life.

This year the Varsity Club has had a charm designed that will be a lasting symbol of each letterman's service to Bates and his membership in the organization that has done so much in the activities of the college.

Review of the Season

Bates 7 Mass. "Aggies" 0

The opening game, as usual, was with the Massachusetts farmers, and Bates made an auspicious start by defeating them 7-0, thus justifying the optimism with which the student body and Alumni looked forward to the season. "Wig" was again at the helm and he was assisted by Reginald Threlfall, a former Perdue star, making an ideal coaching combination.

On account of the heat many substitutions were made which gave the coaches an opportunity to see many of their candidates perform "under fire". From the beginning Bates showed that she was the stronger team as Maher and Violette made long gains through the "Aggie" team.

Returning for the third period with the score 0-0 Bates seized the break which won the game. "Tubby" Flynn, playing end, was down under one of McCurdy's long kicks and tackled the Aggie Quarterback who was receiving so hard that he dropped the ball. Captain Adams, playing as a captain should, fell on the ball on the farmer's twenty yard line. After a series of smashes at the line, White finally produced the touchdown, after which Dave Ray kicked the goal.

Tufts 28 Bates 0

The following week the Bobcat journeyed to Medford and engaged in combat with the "Big Jumbo" from Tufts. The Medford institution of one of the strongest college teams in the East, and in Ellis, Kennedy and Fitzgerald, she had three stars whom any college coach would welcome on his squad. After Ellis and Kennedy had galloped around the ends and through the line for four periods Tufts was found to be just twenty-eight points better than Bates. The latter fought hard but their opponents had the class.

For Bates the punting of McCurdy and the tackling of Foster stood out. The game was a terrific struggle and many of the Bates players were injured, "Red" Oviatt sustaining a broken wrist and Anthony being banged-up generally.

Bates 0 Boston University 0

From a Bates standpoint this game was one of the "high-water marks" of the season. The big Terrier team came up to Lewiston from the Hub on October 15 and fresh from a victory over Colby the week before she looked forward to a victory over the Bobcat.

Playing a wonderful defensive game the Bates line showed the results of Coach Threlfall's instruction and displayed the best exhibition of line play seen at Bates in years. The Terriers were continually being thrown back for losses and their plays were time and again broken up almost as soon as they were started. Neither team showed much offensive strength which was shown by the fact that B. U. made 6 first downs and Bates made 4.

"Pat" McCurdy and Nelson of the Boston team engaged in a great kicking duel which was about even. George Carnie, whose brother played a good game at end for B. U., Foster, Appleby, and Neilson played powerful games in the line.

Maine 67 Bates 0

Playing the first game of the State Series against Maine at Lewiston, the Garnet ran into a veritable tornado which swept everything in its path.

From the very first of the game the deceptive and well-timed Maine plays, executed by a smart backfield and an impregnable line, bewildered the Bates team. Maine could not be stopped that day and her backs ran wild, scoring at least two touchdowns in every period. The final score was 67-0.

Several times Bates showed offensive flashes which gave a momentary thrill to her followers. The hard running of Oviatt showed that he was a real quarterback and his work was outstanding for Bates, although Coutts played a good game while he was in.

Bates 0 Bowdoin 0

After the Maine game the coaches let "by-gones be by-gones" and they put on a fight week with the result that a ferocious, hungry-for-revenge Bobcat prowled into Brunswick on October 29. Showing a surprising renewal of form from that of the previous week, in a game that was marked by thrilling goal-line stands and stubborn fighting. Bates held her ancient and honorable rival to a scoreless tie, thereby radically upsetting all predictions for Bowdoin had defeated Colby the week before.

To the Bates followers this game somewhat atoned for the Maine defeat. Bowdoin had the edge offensively, but on the defense Bates was superb. The Bates line again showed its fighting spirit and general effectiveness and twice stopped the opponents on the one-yard line with Captain Adams, Foster and Neilson all contributing brilliant individual performances. Bob Violette's kicking which often pulled the team out of precarious positions and Red Oviatt's twenty-five yard run were the high lights in the Bates backfield play.

Lowell Textile 6 Bates 0

The Lowell game was the most disappointing upset of the season from a Bates standpoint, especially after the good showing made against Bowdoin. Costly fumbles ruined every opportunity which the Garnet had to score. Lowell won by her passing game, one of the overhead attempts resulting in the only score of the game, and Bates came back to Lewiston on the short end of a 6-0 score.

Colby 13 Bates 0

The annual Armistice Day classic was, as usual, played under adverse weather conditions. The Bates team played good "heads-ups" football throughout the game, making more first downs and gaining more yardage than the Blue.

During the first period Bates registering five first downs before Colby got started, carried the fight right down the field to Colby's eighteen yard line only to have the mule display his well-known stubbornness and refuse to be budged.

Colby finally got started in the middle of the second period and scored two touchdowns within less than five minutes of each other.

Bates went down fighting, and after two more periods of slipping and sliding through the slush with neither team scoring, twenty-two warriors emerged from the mud and the 1927 Maine College football season was over.

"The Stove League"

At the close of the season the "wise" ones, newspapermen, coaches, captains, and other lesser lights got together and started the ball a-rolling in the annual session of the "Stove League". All-Maine selections came in from all quarters, Captain Adams and Neilson appearing on almost every "mythical" team which was chosen. Foster, Dave Ray, and White were also mentioned in several selections.

Freshman Football

When Coach Thompson called out the candidates for the Freshman football team several men who had established good records as schoolboy football players in Maine and Massachusetts were among those who reported.

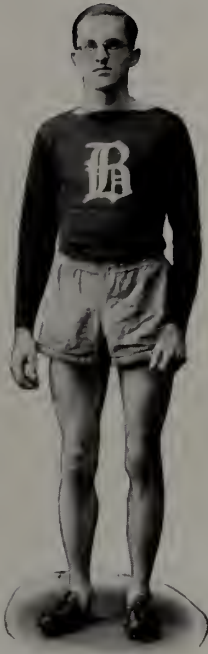

The first game was played with the Hebron Second team and was a walkaway for the Freshmen. Johnson, Chamberlain, and Flatley ran wild and scored in every period. Hebron couldn't dent the Bates line and the final score was 26-0.

Coburn came down from Waterville for the next game, Her famous eleven "iron men" looked the part and also showed that they were "mud horses" by the way they performed on the field which was ankle-deep with water in some places. Coburn scored three times and Bates was not able to make a point.

In a game which was marked by excellent defensive playing Roy Sinclair's M. C. I. team defeated the Garnet Cubs 6-0. A forward pass from Flatley to Kennison which netted thirty yards was the feature play for Bates.

With Leighton, the captain and star player for Kent's Hill running wild, the Seminary boys defeated the Freshmen 7-0. Flatley, Johnson, and Chamberlain, as usual, went good in the Bates backfield while Stanton and Kennison played well in the line.

The annual Freshman-Sophomore game aroused a lot of feeling and both teams put up a great scrap. A large and enthusiastic crowd watched the game which the fighting Freshmen won by one touchdown.

Review of the Season

When Coach Jenkins looked over his cross-country squad at the opening of college he found among those present only two lettermen from the team which won the Maine Championship the year before. Outside of the veterans Captain Wardwell and Chesley he was confronted with the task of building up a team from comparatively green material. "Jenk" is in the habit of winning championships in one department or another of the running game, and we have come to expect, almost to accept them as a matter of course. He always makes the most of his material and this year, although Bates won no championship, the team had the right spirit and made a credible showing.

The New Hampshire Meet

Journeying to Durham in the latter part of October the team was defeated by the strong New Hampshire outfit. "Wardie" led the pack, running well, until he was forced to drop back on account of cramps and Cahalan and Eastman of N. H. passed him and finished one, two with Wardie in third place. Jim Burke plodded home in sixth place, but New Hampshire placed her other men well enough to win the meet 20-35.

The State Championship

One of the best U. of Maine teams in history (and there have been some great ones) ran away with the annual championship race at Waterville, making the remarkably low, almost perfect score of 17 points. Bates, scoring 54 points, nosed out Colby which had a total of 58.

Running over a difficult course, made soggy by a heavy rainstorm the Maine trio of Richardson, Lindsay, and McNaughton showed their class and raced together nearly all of the way to finish in a triple tie for first place.

Captain Wardwell ran his usual good race and finished ahead of Captain Cushing of Maine, beating him in the last mile and a half after they had battled together during most of the race. He was 12 seconds better than Cushing at the finish.

"Old Reliable" Jim Burke finished the fighting in seventh place. Paul Chesley and Auburn Carr were in 12th and 14th places respectively while Adams finished 17th to complete the Bates scoring.

Summary

- 1 Richardson, Lindsay, and McNaughton (all of Maine). Time 35m. 20s.
- 4 Wardwell (Bates) 35m. 35s.
- 5 Cushing and Benson (both of Maine)
- 7 Burke (Bates)
- 8 Harlow (Colby)
- 9 Allen (Colby)
- 10 Towne (Colby)
- 11 Mank (Maine)
- 12 Chesley (Bates)
- 13 Noyes (Maine)
- 14 Carr (Bates)
- 15 Sansone (Colby)
- 16 Thornton (Colby)
- 17 Adams (Bates)
- 18 Bull (Bates)
- 19 Cushing (Bates)

The New Englands

The U. of Maine kept on her winning way in the New England Championships and set a new low score of 29. Richardson, Lindsay, and McNaughton finished 1, 2, 3.

"Wardie" ran one of the best cross-country races of his career and finished in 6th place. Jim Burke kept up the good work and was the second Bates man home in 24th position. Chesley, Buddington, and Cushing were the other men who scored for Bates which was in 7th place with 186 points.

Freshman Cross Country

The 1931 team was one of the best Freshmen outfits that ever represented Bates in cross-country. Many of the men had had little or no running experience before coming to Bates, but "Jenk" taught them a lot of things during the Fall.

With Viles, Jones, and Hayes running abreast and finishing in a triple tie for first place, the Freshmen defeated Canton High School 22-34 in the opening race of the season. Chapman of the Frosh was in 5th place and Hoik was the other 1931 man to score.

On the following week the great triumvirate repeated its performance of the week before while Chapman and Hoik finished fourth and fifth to give the Freshmen a victory by a perfect score over the Bridgton Academy team.

Deering High School came to Lewiston with a good record, but had to bow to the Freshmen in a hard fought contest by a score of 23-32. For the first time the Bates trio was broken up and Wally Viles after a great fight won first place in a close finish from a Deering man. Jones and Hayes tied for third place.

Running in a severe rainstorm and over a water-soaked course Hebron Academy, champions of New England gave the Freshmen their first defeat. The great Jordan was the individual winner and Jones of Bates was second. The other members of the Hebron team placed well enough to give the "Big Green team" the victory 26-31.

Good performances by Viles and Jones gave the 1931 third place in the Freshman race in the New Englands. These men finished sixth and seventh respectively while Chapman was 15th and Hayes 16th.

After such a good showing by the members of this team, Coach Jenkins looks forward to next year with confidence that they will do greater things for Bates.

Right at the start of the 1928 hockey season the Bates team was handicapped by the ineligibility of "Johnny" Cogan, one of the best hockey players who ever entered a Maine college. However, with Captain White, "Louie" Foster, "Zeke" Secor, and Bob Violette, as a strong nucleus from the previous year, the team "carried on" and played good hockey. The "Belmont trio" in the forward line played aggressively at all times and worried many a college defense with its fast skating, passing, and shooting. "Tossy" Lane, brother of "Al", last year's captain, "Pooch" Pooler, and "Pete" Maher all developed into good defense men. "Ed" Erickson, after a year's absence from hockey was also back again to bolster up the defense department. "Jim" Burke played in most of the games and won his letter in his first attempt at the sport. "Bob" Violette put up the same stellar brand of goal tending which he showed the year before and stopped almost everything that came his way.

The first game was played with the Cabots from Brunswick and resulted in a win for Bates by a 3-0 score. Coach Wiggin gave all his material a workout in this game.

The annual trip to Massachusetts and New York came next, and the Bobcat showed its claws to two good teams whipping the Massachusetts "Aggies" and West Point, the score being 2-0 in both cases. At West Point the Bates team played sensational hockey, bombarding the soldiers' goal continually, and only excellent work by the Army goalie kept the score from mounting high. Captain White and Pooler made the scores for Bates.

Returning to her native sod, the Garnet team kept up the good work by winning from Bowdoin and thus taking "first blood" in the State Series. The fine teamwork of the forward line and the air-tight goal-tending of Bob Violette were the features of the Bates teams' playing. "Howie" White scored two of the goals, and Secor made the other.

After piling up three victories in five days the Bates team entertained Colby at the St. Dom's Arena, and after four overtime periods finally succumbed before the attack of the fast Waterville outfit by the tune of 2-1. It was a hard fought game from start to finish, Bates weakening at the end because of the long trip and the number of games she had played in the few previous days.

The "Wildcat" from the University of New Hampshire came to Lewiston the next week and met the Bates Bobcat. They growled, snarled, clawed, and scratched each other; but the Wildcat finally got the upper hand and took a 5-3 victory back to Durham. This was one of the best games of the season with Foster playing scintillating hockey for Bates. He scored two of the goals, and Whitey made the other.

The next game was at Waterville with the Colby Mule, and here again Bates was defeated in an overtime game. Colby scored twice, spectacular work by Bob Violette preventing many other goals, while Bates could score but once, that as a result of clever work by Foster.

After defeating the Mass. Aggies in a return game at Lewiston, the Garnet hockey men battled quite successfully with the Mid-year exams, and the team was strengthened by the return of Johnny Cogan.

The first game after Mid-years was with the Elis of Yale at New Haven. This team was one of the most powerful hockey aggregations in college ranks, and boasted of one of the best amateur players in the country in the person of "Ding" Palmer. Bates lost the game 12-3, Secor scoring twice and Cogan adding the other point. In spite of the score, the whole team played good hockey. Gleason, a Freshman, playing his first Varsity game, showed that he was capable of performing with the best of them.

Arcadia University came down from the Provinces for the next encounter, and played the Bates team to a 2-2 tie in a torrid extra-period game. Johnny Cogan scored both goals. "Louie" Foster who received a severe cut on his face also played valiant hockey for Bates.

Playing on a surface covered with an inch of slush, Bowdoin defeated Bates in the next State Series game at Lewiston. Bates could not penetrate Bowdoin's husky defense men, Walsh and Stone, while a Bowdoin substitute slipped a goal past Violette which was enough to win the game.

As a fitting climax to the season Bates won a 4-2 victory from the Brown University at Providence in a fast and thrilling encounter. "Johnny" Cogan again featured in the Bates attack, and Foster and White ended their hockey careers at Bates by displaying their usual good brand of hockey. Bates will miss these two.

All in all, the season was quite successful with six wins, five losses, and one tie game.

The final standing in the State Series was as follows:

	Won	Lost	P. C.
Bowdoin	3	1	.667
Colby	2	2	.500
Bates	1	3	.333

The Bates yearlings opened their schedule with a game with Bridgton Academy which was played under the difficulties of darkness and biting cold weather. The game developed into an exhibition of individual play as team-work was impossible on account of the adverse conditions. Bridgton finally emerged the victor, 6-1. Gleason performed well for Bates, scoring her only point, while Kennison made a good showing at goal.

The following week the Frosh journeyed to Hebron Academy where they received a decisive beating from one of the smartest school-boy hockey teams in New England.

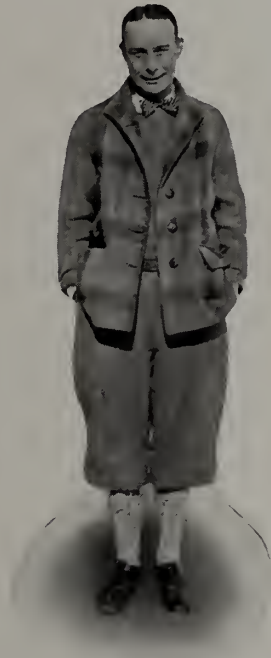

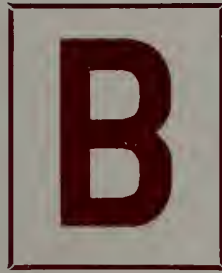

After holding Cony to a tie score, the yearlings played the Alumni on the Saturday afternoon of Carnival week. The "old-timers" had such stars as "Joe" Cogan, "Al" Lane, Coach Wiggin, and "Mac" Corey, so carried too much power for the Frosh. In spite of good playing by Gleason and Garcelon, the men of 1931 were defeated, 5-2.

From this outfit several men of potential varsity calibre will be available next year, Gleason, Kennison and Garcelon showing the most promise of bringing future glory to Bates.

Lake Placid Meet (no points)

Hanover Meet (no points)

State Meet Bates won the Maine Intercollegiate Title

The Winter of 1928 found another very successful Bates Winter Sports Team performing in a creditable style. Coached by C. Ray Thompson and Captained by George V. Drabble, the Bates men gave a very good account of themselves wherever they competed. Bare ground rather hampers Winter Sport practice and at a time when the Garnet and Black outfit should have been frolicking in deep snow, it was forced to content itself with visits to the basement of Parker Hall. Here the sole pleasure of the men was to refresh their memories as to the appearance of a snowshoe or a ski. It was not to be wondered at, therefore, that Bates returned from the Lake Placid and Dartmouth meets, contests where the competition is of the stiffest, without points. The Bates snow team, nevertheless, came dangerously near the point column on several occasions, and it is very probable that had they been given more opportunity by the weatherman to work into shape, Drabble, Rand, Flynn, and Coleman would have bettered their positions in several events—enough to collect the points that a team of Bates calibre deserves.

Weather conditions continued to be unfavorable and the State Meet had to be postponed several times. Although it seemed for a while that this classic would have to be foregone, Coach Thompson willed otherwise, and with his assistants worked untiringly so that the meet could take place. Accordingly on February 22 Bowdoin and Colby visited Lewiston to try their luck against Bates.

The Brown Bear, recalling to its mind the experience of the past seven winters, decided to hibernate at Orono and probably snored better there than it would have skiied here. Let us hope that next year the Colby White Mule will not prefer a warm stable and the Bowdoin Polar Bear a comfortable spot in the Androscoggin River, for again the meet was all Bates. The Bobcat is one of the most dangerous of animals when it dons skiis or snowshoes as the final tabulation of 53½ points proves. Colby was a very poor second garnering but 18½ points while Bowdoin could boast of but five points as a result of their day's work. Rand, Drabble, and Stearns of Bates and Rollins of Colby were the outstanding performers of the meet.

Bates brilliant record in Winter Sports is here deserving of mention. No other Maine college has ever surpassed Bates in ski and snowshoe competition, and the Bobcats have the unique distinction of having won every Intercollegiate State Winter Sports Meet since this event was introduced.

No little credit for the Garnet's superiority is due to Coach Ray Thompson, who for the past four years has worked quietly but efficiently. Since taking charge of the team in 1925, he has produced clubs which have in every case won the snow games with an overwhelming score.

"Tough luck", sighed Bates baseball fandom as Spring practice began at the Athletic Building,—and well it might! Although some men of high calibre like Captain Ell Small, Roy Cascadden, Jimmie Cole, and Manny Palmer were in their usual positions, and although there was a wealth of promising candidates for the vacant infield and fielding jobs, Coach Wiggin's outfit could not exactly be called "tailor-made". The batting and fielding departments looked rather bright, but the dearth of pitchers was pathetic and boded naught but ill for the 1928 season. Wig is not in the habit of broadcasting his difficulties and so he went to work with the material on hand and by the middle of April he was prepared to introduce Norris Marston and Ralph Giroux as the first-string pitchers. Both men are totally lacking in collegiate experience but the manner in which they have lived up to the requirements in the games played up to date seems to indicate that Bates may spring a surprise in the near future.

The elements scored a crushing victory over both Bates and Bowdoin on Patriots' Day, while a thick blanket of snow lay new and sparkling on Garcelon Field, Bates players and supporters toasted their shins against Parker Hall radiators and pessimistically prophesied a season for winter sports rather than for baseball. The unalluring prospect of an Ivy Day snowshoe meet with our Brunswick rivals was, however, short-lived, and April 21 found conditions favorable for the Bates-Maine game. The Garnet nine met the Brown Bear at Orono with Rhuland, Cascadden, and J. Marston in the garden and Pooler, Turner, Topolosky, and Small holding down the infield positions. Palmer was behind the bat and Giroux and Marston in the box. Maine won 4-2 but Bates stock rose rapidly in value as a result of the splendid showing of the hurlers and the fielding of the rest of the team. Also the team was weakened by the absence of Jimmie Cole from the lineup, and it was also obvious that the Bates sluggers had not yet found their batting eyes.

On April 27 the team left for a trip through southern New England and on the 28th the Hathorn bell tolled the news of a 6-3 victory over the New Hampshire nine. Rhode Island's powerful club, however, eked out a 3-2 win over the Garnet and in the final contest of the trip Brown managed to have the edge on the Bobcats 2-0.

Thus far the team had shown a decided inclination to be another one of the famous Bates "hitless wonder" aggregations, but the cheers of the home coeds and the familiar surroundings of Garcelon Field awakened the latent batting power and at present it appears that rival pitchers will come in for their share of cannonading. A 9-2 victory over Connecticut Aggies and an 11-6 verdict over Maine speak for themselves on this matter.

The State Series was ushered in at Lewiston on May 5th. Colby, with what looks like a first rate outfit, took the measure of the Bobcat 5-4. But in spite of their highly-spoken-of Mr. Trainor on the mound, Colby experienced some very uncomfortable moments, and it is not unfair to say that they received more than their share of luck. Championship hopes brightened considerably on May 10th when Maine visited Garcelon Field. The Maniacs enjoyed the afternoon until the last half of the sixth inning. Trailing 6-2, the Bobcats began to snarl. Bates bats began to connect more viciously with the offerings of Mr. Goudy, and as home runs and triples hid in the bushes near the fence, Maine's lead shrunk to one run. The lucky seventh was a nightmare for Goudy and Taft as five more counters crossed the plate for Bates; and as if this were not enough the Garnet added a couple more hits and a run in the eighth to provide a grand total of 18 hits and eleven runs for the afternoon's work.

Bates has a real job ahead of her to win the State Championship but it can be done and the team seems to be getting better every day.

B. A. A. Games

On February 4th, Bates opened the most ambitious campaign for relay honors that any Maine College ever undertook by entering teams in both the Two-mile Intercollegiate relay and in a Mile relay against Massachusetts Aggies. Garnet jerseys flashed brilliantly that evening and Coach Jenkins' fliers broke the tape in both races.

The two-mile quartet, composed of Chesley, Wardwell, Adams, and Wakely were opposed by Harvard, Georgetown, Yale, Dartmouth and several other teams that were representative of the cream of the country. Paul Chesley was lead-off man and after a bad start sprinted through the pack to finish in fourth position only three yards behind the Georgetown leader. Wardwell ran second and with clever jockeying boosted the team into second place from which he handed the baton to Roy Adams. On next to the last lap Roy sprinted and leaped ahead of the Georgetown man and maintained a four yard lead until he passed the stick to Captain Wakely. Gorman, the Georgetown anchor man, with a terrific burst, sped past Max on the first corner and held the lead for three laps; but at this point Max went past him like a shot and, running a 1:58 half, broke the tape a neat fifteen yards ahead of the nearest competitor.

Not to be outdone, the Mile team started out like a whirlwind and Fisher and "Hec" Richardson piled up a beautiful lead in the first two relays. Coleman then took the baton, and in spite of the fact that he fell on one of the corners, recovered himself rapidly and managed to retain the lead. "Ossie" Chapman ran anchor and gave evidence of his ability by setting a tremendous pace that carried him across the tape with a forty yard advantage over the Aggie crew.

Both teams ran brilliantly and the rapid time in the Two-mile event broke the B. A. A. record which has stood for some time. It gave the men high hopes of winning further honors in that event at the Penn Relays. It was the seventh consecutive year that the Bates colors have been carried to a victory on the B. A. A. track; and with Chapman, Chesley, Fisher, and Adams to carry on next year the Garnet should see other successes of the same kind.

Pennsylvania Relays

The spectacular victory of the Bates Two-mile relay men at the Pennsylvania Re'ay games was a fitting climax to the relay program that Coach Jenkins had planned for 1928. By winning the National Intercollegiate crown in that event the Bates quartet proved itself not only to be the best team of its kind in the country but probably in the world.

The weather was far from auspicious as the team took the field. Heavy rains on the previous day and night had made the track soggy and treacherous, and the many events that preceded the Two-mile relay had converted one of the best tracks in the country into a veritable sea of mud. But the brilliant scarlet sweat-suits flashed a word of cheer to the Bates following in the stands.

Chesley was the lead-off man again and was in fifth place at the end of the first lap. However, he forged steadily forward and at the end of his half mile was in third place, fifteen yards behind the leading Harvard man. Wardwell took up the fight at this point and in spite of his size plowed through the mud to come across the line in second place, five yards in back of the Harvard jersey. Royal Adams ran third with a bad leg to hinder him, but he ran a brilliant race, passing the Crimson jersey and handing over a four yard lead to Max Wakely. Those who saw Roy's race will never forget it. It was a brilliant exhibition of running and of grit and the injury to his ankle was so increased that it was his last race of the year.

Max was master of the final half mile throughout the race and the lanky Bates Captain strode across the finish line a full twenty yards in the lead of the Harvard anchor man to win the coveted Two-mile National Relay Championship. The victory gave Bates a leg on the William N. Wallace Challenge Cup and a year's possession of the Meadowbrook Permanent Challenge Cup.

An hour after the Two-mile relay Bates, with Wakely and Adams repeating, ran the Class "B" championship relay which the University of New Hampshire won. Aura Coleman and Stanley Fisher were the other two men to run. Bates ran a beautiful race but were outrun by both New Hampshire and Colgate. Ray Nilson, Chad Knowlton, Romeo Houle, and Red Oviatt also competed in different events on the program.

Northeastern Meet

In their first track meet of the year, Bates romped away with the Northeastern aggregation on February 25. Bates showed a well balanced team that did not rely wholly upon its first place men to carry off the meet. The 45 yard dash was the first event upon the program and Hypie Rowe snatched the victory from two Northeastern men who were close upon his heels. In the mile Thompson of Northeastern won with a record breaking performance, but Wally Viles and Rag Lind gathered in the other two places for Bates. Stan Fisher managed to sneak in a second place in the hurdles while Northeastern took the other places. Bates started its serious scoring in the 600 which "Ossie" Chapman won easily with Max Wakely close upon his heels. The two mile run was also very much Bates with Wardwell and Jones garnering eight points. Max Wakely turned in another fine performance to win the 300, and Adams, Chesley, and Viles made a clean sweep of the points in the 1000 yard run. Dave Ray and Ray Burnett took first and third in the shot and Knowlton grabbed a point in the high jump. The meet was closed with a relay race that Northeastern won. It should have been a Bates victory, but for some confusion in passing the baton which lost ten yards for the Bates men. However, the meet was most satisfactory, for it proved that the Garnet had a well-balanced team that could make a good showing against most any collegiate team.

Bates-Maine Dual Meet

The final indoor meet of the year was staged in the Clifton Daggett Gray Athletic Building on March 3rd, against the University of Maine. Bates gained sweet revenge for the defeat of last year and smartly walloped the Maniacs 72½ to 42½. The men ran great races and from the start the meet appeared to be a Garnet victory, and an especially significant one in view of the fact that Bates and Maine are universally considered the leading contenders for Maine honors in May.

Bates won eight out of the thirteen first places, copping the dash, 600, 1000, shot, pole vault, two mile, broad jump and 35 pound weight. Bates also tied for one first when Knowlton snared a tie with O'Connor of Maine in the high jump.

Rowe won the dash for the second successive year, and Chapman and Wakely tied in an easy victory in the 600. Wardy succeeded in losing Richardson in the dust after the latter had expressed great confidence in his ability to hog five points for himself, and Roy Adams uncorked a sprint that carried him home far in the lead of the opposing Maine men. Chesley also ran a great race to get an easy second. Ray, Houle, and Burnett made a clean sweep of the shot put and Don Fearon vaulted his way to five points. Hypie Rowe and Knowlton snared first and second in the broad jump and Nilson and Wood took first and third in the hammer throw.

Six track records were smashed and the honor went exclusively to Bates men, with the exception of the high jump which Knowlton and O'Connor shared together.

New Hampshire Dual Meet

Running true to form, the Bates-New Hampshire dual track meet was the most thrilling and closely contested one of the year. It was held at Durham and it was only after brilliant performances by the field men that the Bobcats emerged victorious with the score standing at 71 1/3 to 63 2/3. There were several upsets in the running events and Captain Toolin of the New Hampshire tracksters nearly caused the downfall of the Garnet when he scored 16 1/3 points for the Granite Staters. However the javelin throwers and the discus tossers came through to snare fifteen out of a possible eighteen points.

There was a strong wind blowing down the field and caused the runners no little trouble, especially in the distance events. The meet started off nicely enough with Hypie Rowe breasting the tape for a win in the 100. Two New Hampshire men were close behind him. The high hurdles were nothing to warm the hearts of Bates men as Fisher was forced to content himself with a lone point, placing the Wildcats 6 points in the lead. The mile was next and with Adams a practical cripple, Bates took another on the chin and took second and third. Viles ran a nice race to place second but could not beat out Noyes. Wakely helped things out a trifle by winning the 440 in the record time of 50 $\frac{2}{5}$ but New Hampshire was right there to take second and third. Wardwell and Burke placed first and third in the two mile race. Captain Paul Toolin of New Hampshire took his second first place of the meet in the low hurdles with Fisher and Oviatt following in his wake. The half mile went to "Ossie" Chapman with Noyes of New Hampshire second and Chesley third. The last running event saw Toolin again out ahead to breast the tape for his third first place. Wakely took second and Ladd of New Hampshire was third. This left Bates behind 34-38.

The field events started rather poorly for Bates with Dave Ray barely squeezing a place for Bates to avoid a whitewash. Chad Knowlton won the high jump with two New Hampshire men and Ed Wood tying for second. The Bobcat was let down again in the pole vault with only one point, while the broad jump only netted us five points in the guise of a first place by Hypie Rowe. This left only three events on the program and chances seemed terribly slim for Bates to eke out a win, for the Garnet was 13 $\frac{1}{3}$ points behind. This meant that out of a possible 27 remaining points the Bobcats had to take at least 21 points. Nilson, Wood, and Wandrup made things look a little brighter by making a clean sweep in the hammer and Bates began to smile when Burnett, Anthony, and Roy Adams repeated the performance in the javelin. This meant that we had to get three points in the discus and Houle and Hubbard came through for six points to win the meet by 7 $\frac{2}{3}$ points.

The work of the entire team was consistent and the victory proved the importance of building up a well balanced team.

The Maine Intercollegiates

The brilliant successes of the track and relay teams throughout the indoor and outdoor season had given Bates sport fans a real hope that the Bobcat might at last come out on top of a Maine championship but the superb competitive spirit of the Maine track and field men carried them to an overwhelming victory over the entire field. Then, too, Bates didn't get a break all afternoon and one by one her hopes were mowed down by the wearers of the Pale Blue.

In the mile run Charlie Sansone of Colby won a comparatively easy victory over McNaughton of Maine, with Wally Viles taking a third and winning his letter for the first time. Roy Adams had been a big Garnet hope in this event but due to a torn ligament in his ankle he was unable to place.

Max Wakely ran a beautiful race to come from behind to win the 440 from Niles of Maine and Norris of Bowdoin. Hypie Rowe managed to get into the finals of the 100 but Mostrom of Bowdoin and Stymiest and Berenson of Maine were too fast for him and he failed to place.

The 120 high hurdles saw Bates blanked again with Lucas and Green of Bowdoin and Chandler of Maine reaping in the points. The 880 went to "Ossie" Chapman with Larsen and Mank of Maine taking the other points. Paul Chesley was slated to place second but he fell in the first lap and could not get up into the running again. Chapman ran a plucky race and ran the last lap and a half without a shoe.

The 220 dash was a Bowdoin victory with Wakely grabbing a second for Bates, and Niles of Maine taking the stray point. Richardson of Maine pulled one of the surprises of the afternoon by taking the two mile event from Wardwell who was expected to win. But the wind was too strong for Wardy and he was forced to content himself with a second.

The 220 low hurdles did not boost the Garnet total much as "Red" Oviatt was eliminated in the semi-finals and Fisher stumbled on two hurdles in the finals and only placed third although he was well in the lead when he missed his footing. Knowlton was defeated in the high jump by Seekins of Colby, and Ray couldn't place in the shot. Burnett and Anthony were barely nosed out in the javelin by Black of Maine who also took the measure of Nilson and Wood in the hammer. This versatile Maine athlete scored 16 points for his Alma Mater.

Hypie Rowe captured the broad jump for the fourth successive year but Bates was again blanked in the final events, the pole vault and the discus.

However, the Pale Blue Victory did not leave the Bobcat or Coach Jenkins too discouraged. Although there are several first place winners in the graduating class, there are men of real ability and promise who should be prepared by next Spring to take up the responsibilities of the men of '28. With a wealth of middle distance men in the lower classes and an ever-strengthening field department the Garnet and Black should be fit and ready to fight when May of 1929 arrives.

Coach Chester A. Jenkins is deserving of much praise for the manner in which he has guided the destinies of Bates track teams. He has developed many men who have turned out to be of national importance and with his pleasant personality gets more work out of his men than other coaches do with all their driving tactics.

The New England Intercollegiates

After a defeat in the Maine Intercollegiates Bates took a determined group of athletes to the New Englands in Boston on May 19th, and scored 18 points to place third. Maine walked away with the meet by scoring 31 3/4 points and Holy Cross followed with 26.

In the trials on Friday Bates managed to place seven men for the finals on the following day. Those who qualified were: Captain Maxwell Wakely, Chapman, Chesley, Wood, Houle, Rowe, and Fisher.

In the 440 yard dash, Wakely staged a thrilling uphill battle to come from behind the field to a 50 1/5 second victory over Atkins of New Hampshire, Earl of Northeastern, and Woodworth of Boston College.

In the 880 yard run "Ossie" Chapman definitely proved his ability as a half miler by flashing a 1:56 3/5 to conquer an imposing field composed of Rogers of Boston College, Fay of M. I. T., and Daley of Holy Cross. Chesley came in fifth and although his time was under two minutes was unable to place.

Edgar Wood grabbed a fourth in the hammer throw which Black of Maine won with a toss of 162 feet. Wood's throw of 137 was the best he has made this year.

Hypie Rowe was off form in the broad jump but managed to take a third in the event. Talbot of Rhode Island won with a leap of 22 feet 8 inches. Hall of Mass Aggies placed second.

Fisher was eliminated in the semi final of the 220 low hurdles.

While Bates' record in Tennis is not a particularly brilliant one this year, there are, nevertheless features of the 1928 season which cause hopes to arise among the enthusiasts of this sport. The Garnet racquet team made a very creditable showing in the State Meet and has given all opponents a bitter battle. New courts, under construction, show evidence of increased interest in tennis and promise better facilities for developing teams in years to come. A schedule for a Freshman team is a new innovation which promises to help in more firmly establishing tennis in its place on the Bates athletic program. Last year Bates was provided with the first real tennis schedule in several years. An ambitious list of contests serves as an inspiration to a team and this season Manager Taylor D. Clough continued the good work of 1927 and prepared a worthwhile series of matches for the Bobcats. The Athletic Council, too, permitted the use of tape on the courts this year, rather than lime, and supplied pulleys for adjusting the nets. This fact is of more importance than it would seem at first thought for it saves a great deal of time in getting the courts ready for play.

All year weather has been a constant source of annoyance. The annual Freshman tennis tournament was attempted last Fall, but before it could be completed inclement weather became so prevalent that it had to be discontinued. The same statement must be made of tournaments to decide the college singles and mixed doubles champions. Interest in these events, however, was encouraging enough so that next Fall they will be attempted again. Spring practice, also, was seriously disrupted by poor weather and as a result members of the team are only just beginning to attain the proficiency of which they are capable.

On May 11th, the Garnet and Black acted as hosts to a strong Colby team and while they failed to defeat the Waterville collegians, they showed surprising strength which augured for a creditable showing in the State tournament. Mark Rand defeated Nelson of Colby in the third singles match, and Davis and Moulton conquered Tattersall and Allen in the first doubles match. Bates men showed good tennis in the matches that were lost, and Colby's 4-2 victory was gained only after several deuce sets.

May 14th and 15th the State tournament took place in Lewiston with Bates, Colby, and Bowdoin competing. The Bobcats made the best showing that a Bates team has made in many seasons. In the singles no Bates man survived his first match. In the semi-finals, Tattersall of Colby defeated Parker of Bowdoin 6-2 and 6-3, while Abbott of Bowdoin disposed of Nelson of Colby 6-3, 6-1. In the finals Captain Tattersall of Colby won a thrilling five set match from Abbott of Bowdoin 6-4, 2-6, 5-7, 8-6, 6-4 and brought the 1928 singles championship to the White Mule. In the doubles the Garnet made a strong bid for honors. Davis and Moulton reached the semi-finals on a bye as did Solley and Parker of Bowdoin. Tattersall and Allen of Colby, winners over Ramsey and Abbott of Bowdoin were taken over by the Bobcats 3-6, 9-7, 8-6. Meanwhile Solley and Parker of the Black and White had advanced to the final round by conquering Nelson and McCracken of Colby who in turn had eliminated Lomas and Richardson of Bates. In the final match Davis and Moulton fought stubbornly after a bad start. Dropping their first set 6-0, they rallied and were barely nosed out in the next two 6-4 and 8-6 by Solley and Parker who by virtue of their win took the doubles championship to Brunswick.

May 18th the team was defeated by New Hampshire 5-2 in a drizzling rain. Rand in the singles and Moulton and Davis in the doubles accounted for Bates points.

Davis and Moulton will represent Bates at the New England Intercollegiates May 21-23, and the season will end with a match with Bowdoin at Brunswick, May 29th.

Inter-Class Athletics

Bates is unusually fortunate in having a system of Inter-Class athletics that is productive of much class and college spirit and which is a vital factor in preparing men for varsity competition as well as an important item in the general health program for those who do not care to spend their time in varsity competition.

During the Fall the Inter-Class contests are largely confined to the epic struggles between the Freshmen and the Sophomores. During the past year the Freshmen were defeated by the Sophomores in the annual baseball game, but came back in great style to defeat their masters in football.

Just prior to the Christmas Recess, Coach Jenkins staged a track meet between the Freshmen and the Sophomores which the latter won by a rather large margin. The following week the Class of 1928 annexed its fourth consecutive inter-class Track Title. The unbroken string of victories was a notable achievement.

During the winter the Seniors attempted to repeat their success in basketball, but the lowly Freshmen had an unbeatable quintet and the colors of the Garnet and the Gray went down to defeat for the first time in four years.

"I ask but a field that is fair,
A chance that is equal with all in the strife
A courage to strive and to dare."

Our athletes at Bates "ask but a field that is fair". And who are our athletes? We cannot count them on two hands. Ask any loyal Bates girl about sports. She will say that all like one sport or another, and many like them all. They hate to think that the hockey season is closing, for it was so much fun, but then they can hardly wait for the Basketball season to begin.

The Locker building, Rand gym, the indoor athletic field, and the two outdoor fields have rung with many a shout from opposing teams, as the girls raced up and down the field, or made fine passes on the court. And whether they win or whether they lose, they all "cheer as the winners go by".

This year Baseball and Volleyball were run off after Basketball to give the girls a ten weeks season in the latter—and a fine season it was, with not only inter-class games and a sister-class game, but inter-dorm games open to any girl who was not on a first team in Basketball. Thru these games much new interest was aroused in the sport.

The gym meet was a splendid success, for the girls were not working for themselves as individuals, but for their side. The major numbers in the gym meet were divided among Garnets and Blacks (an innovation this year). Individual stripes in gym work are awarded by the instructors.

Both of our instructors, Professor Walmsley and Miss James are new members of Bates faculty this year. Their many splendid methods have worked toward interesting a larger group of girls in a greater number of sports, and playing the game for the fun that is in it, and for the good that comes from it.

A new system of majors and minors in indoor work has been inaugurated under their leadership in which a girl may take two periods of floor work, and one period of a sport or dancing. Special mention must be made of the fine work Miss James is doing with the Junior and Senior girls in natural dancing and the response of the girls.

Training is still a topic of conversation, also a challenge to "win by the code with faith and honor held high".

The board owes a great deal to the fine leadership of its President, Pamela Leighton, and to the faithful guidance of the Physical Education instructors.

The year's work is considered by all to be a very successful one. The retiring W. A. A. board extends its most hearty wishes to the new board for a most successful year to come.

Hockey, hiking, baseball, volley-ball, winter sports, track, tennis, archery and soccer—what does it all mean? To twenty-seven seniors and nineteen juniors, it means membership in that distinctive group of co-eds who wear the heavy white sweater with the big garnet "B".

Formerly, the Women's Athletic Association automatically granted this award as soon as a girl had earned ten stripes in athletics, but under the new point system, introduced with the class of 1930, 145 points are required—approximately equivalent to fifteen stripes. It is a more difficult achievement but well worth the effort, for what happier memory of college activities can the co-ed take away with her than the memory of that first morning when she stepped out on campus, the proud possessor of the much-coveted white sweater?

Volleyball

Snowstorms in April are unusual, but in spite of the weather, the Juniors determined to put one over on the Sophomores! And soon the Sophomores decided that there was something more unusual on campus than an April snowstorm. Yes, '29 rolled up the score that day!

The next day '29 played the freshmen. This time a third game was necessary to play off a tie—the freshmen class was showing its spirit.

Again the Juniors lined up behind the net, and '28 served some swift balls, just as swiftly returned. In half an hour '29 ran off amid the cheers, champion team of the volley ball season.

Archery

Last spring saw on Bates campus, for the second time, a group of maidens come "with bows bent and emptying of quivers". But these were no Grecian damsels of old,—they were fair co-eds practicing archery. It is a graceful sport. The bow is raised—arrowed, sighted, then a strong and steady pull and—whang!—the arrow speeds straight to the bulls-eye, or, more likely, to the side of Mount David. "Chasing the arrows" some call it, for the big toe of the mountains curls tenderly over the feathered shaft and allows it to be retrieved only after a long and diligent search. Twice a year a class tournament is held. Last spring Rachel Ellis, '30, was high scorer for her class. In the fall Mary Pike led the class of '29 to a decisive victory.

Hockey

Hockey this year has proved to be sufficiently exciting and interesting to satisfy the highest hopes of the veterans of the three upper classes, and to live up to the expectations of the least experienced Freshmen as well. Starting the season under the able direction of Professor Walmsley and Miss James, the flocks of candidates for the different class teams were gradually rounded into shape through the constant drilling on fundamentals and team play.

As soon as the teams were picked, intensive training and team practice developed the successful candidates so that when the play-offs in the annual tournament were held, each player was really fit, and all set to do her best to play the game and to help her team win the coveted Interclass Hockey Championship.

The preliminary games between the Seniors and Sophomores, and the Juniors and Freshmen only intensified the doubt as to which class would come through for the championship title. The first game was a good lead-off for the tournament, as the competition was intensely keen. The second-year women succeeded in slipping two tallies through the goalie in the first half after the ball had been punished by the opposing forwards and backs. Then '28 came on the field, determined to start with the whistle on a wild scoring rampage. While they executed some clever plays, the only score was a spectacular drive from Marge Jewell's stick. The final whistle blew with the score 2-1 in favor of '30.

The Junior-Frosh game followed with the less experienced women putting up no little opposition for the '29-ers. The Juniors were, however, in the mood for enjoying the resounding thud of the ball as it went between the goal posts of the opposers, for the tilt finished with a 6-0 score for the third year women.

The following day saw one of the most exciting games of the tournament between '28 and '29. As was to be expected both teams played heads-up hockey and were out for a win. The Junior backs executed some clever pass work to assist their forward line to carry the ball down the field. It appeared as though the game would end in a tie as Bud Ryder and Pris Lunderville had scored for their respective teams, but Betty Murray after a thrilling scrimmage in front of the goal, drove in the tally to win for the Seniors, 2-1.

The next week saw the Seniors-Frosh in the third game of the tournament. The Frosh, audaciously minded, were seriously thinking of trimming the fourth-year women. At the end of the first half, their ardor was by no means diminished, even though '28 had neatly slipped in two tallies. The second half threatened, even then, to upset the dope bucket as both teams tried to force the ball through the opposing defense. Just at the last minute Bud Ryder scored the third and final goal, making the score 3-0.

The second game of the afternoon saw the Juniors and Sophs vying in another of the most exciting games of the tournament. Just about two minutes after the opening whistle, Mid Beckman drove in a goal for the Sophs. The Juniors thought that was "sufficient unto the day thereof". In the middle of the second half, Pris scored the tying goal of the game. Despite pleas and exhortations from the respective cheering sections the game resulted in a 1-1 tie.

The last game of the tournament saw the rival clans of '30 and '31 all set for a real battle. Despite all, the Frosh had to swallow a 9-0 score as the pill which had a decidedly Sophomoric flavor.

The next day the annual varsity game between '28-'30 and '29-'31 was held. This game saw some very spectacular plays on the part of both teams. Ev Kennard, '29, upset the dope bucket by driving through two resounding tallies to win for the "Pale Blues" against the "Bolsheviki" by a 2-0 score.

Thus endeth the '27-'28 season, with everyone out for the sport realizing that hockey, too, is a "grand old game".

Basketball

Basketball began as soon as we returned after the Thanksgiving recess. After ten weeks of practice under the splendid instruction of Prof. Walmsley the tournament began. In the first game the Sophomores had little difficulty in snatching a victory from the Seniors; then the Juniors, and Freshmen played with the final score in favor of the Juniors. The Seniors won from the Freshmen as did the Sophomores, also; and the Juniors defeated the Seniors. By now excitement was running high.

The most thrilling game of the tournament, the outcome of which determined the champions, was between the Juniors and Sophomores. From the time the referee blew her whistle at the start until the game was over it was fast and exciting. At the end of the half the score was tied and at the third quarter the Juniors were four points ahead. During the last quarter the second-year lassies rolled in a few more baskets and were proclaimed the champions with the Juniors holding second place.

A sister-class game was played. Of course the Senior-Sophs were the logical winners but lo, they failed to get the ball and the Junior-Freshmen won the game.

Inter-dorm basketball was tried for the first time this year and proved of much interest and value. Any girl who did not make her class team was eligible to play. Eight games were played with Rand, Cheney, Chase, Frye St., Whit, Milliken, Lewiston and Auburn participating. Rand Hall finished at the head of the list. By introducing these inter-dorm games we further extended our policy of "sports for the masses rather than sports for the classes".

On March 22nd a banquet was given at Rand Hall dining room under the direction of the W.A.A. This surely rewarded every girl who kept the practices and training, and was a fitting climax for a basketball season at Bates.

Soccer

In 1920 Soccer was introduced into our sports for the first time. Since then quite a degree of skill has been achieved until now we consider it one of our most prominent outdoor sports. Soccer brings forth many spectators and the "Eds" especially take great delight in watching us play; and though they won't admit it we really think that underneath the apparent amusement received thereby there is a keen interest. In her Junior year 1928 with 1930 won the Varsity game, beating the Senior-Sophs 1-0. May the Fates be kind to her this Spring and enable her to surpass her record of previous years, thus bringing her Athletic career to a fitting and glorious end.

Hiking

The gypsy blood in one's veins and the lure of the open road are irresistible in the fall of the year and that is why we have hiking here at Bates.

At any time of day girls may be seen hiking down Sabattus Street or around by the Fairgrounds on a famous "fifty minute" and then returning, often just in time for the next class.

Greene is a veritable Canterbury on a Saturday afternoon—the destination of many groups of girls who jaunt along, gaily refusing the offers of kind autoists, and all the while eating apples or confiscating signboards along the way.

Best of all of the hiking activities are the supper hikes. Happy and care-free we start out just at sunset cross country in the direction of Thorncrag. We find that fire building and cooking supper does not seem like work when out of doors. When the last hot dog has been eaten and the fire is dying down we sit around the fire and sing all the old songs and also a new one or two. Finally when the stars begin to appear and perhaps—a big full moon comes up as if enticing us to stay—we start home and hike along "singing a song side by side".

Hiking is popular with the girls, whether this is because it is an individual sport, or because of the lure of the great outdoors in the fall, would be hard to say, but this fall 78 girls earned credit in hiking and all are anxious to take it again.

Baseball

Baseball is a relatively new sport for the coeds, having been introduced into the athletic curriculum last year by Miss Francis and Miss Bass. However it proved to be exceedingly popular and Professor Walmsley had no difficulty in obtaining a large and enthusiastic squad from each of the four classes.

The Sophomores proved to have the championship team and managed to win all three of the games they played. The Juniors were in second place, losing only to the '30 team while the Seniors won one game and the Frosh brought up the rear of the procession with three defeats.

Professor Walmsley's expert coaching produced a marked improvement in the players. The practices were held in the athletic cage and the games were held on the girls' athletic field.

Interpretive Dancing

A class in interpretive dancing for seniors was first introduced by Miss Mildred Francis, and has been successfully carried out this year by Miss Constance James. The class studies group work in nature dancing, individual interpretation of music, and this year, a new phase, interpretation of poetry by the dance.

For the first time this group has appeared outside the college, first taking part in the Y. W. C. A. Pageant, "The March of the Years", and also entertaining the Greek guests of Phil-Hellenic. Their work is an important feature of the annual May Festival and of the Greek play.

This year marked a change of personnel in the Coaching Staff and Professor Walmsley and Miss Constance James took over the work of the former coaches. They have arranged a most successful program of athletics, gymnastics, and dancing with certain new phases being worked into the programs of former years. Both Professor Walmsley and Miss James have taken a great interest in the other activities of the college and have done much to make the various undergraduate undertakings successful.

Winter Sports

"Hurrah for the ski and the taut snowshoe
And the swift skates' shrill refrain!
When the world's enwrapped in its mantle new
And winter awakes again!"

But alas, winter does not always awake again, even way up in Maine. So it was this winter. The fine new equipment stood unused in the racks from week to week.

However, there was fine skating thru most of the cold weather. And thanks to Professor Walmsley's love of out-door-sports, the girls chased the puck with brand new hockey sticks over an improvised rink. What fun it was!

With the new system of majors and minors, many more girls than usual availed themselves of the fun of out-of-doors, and it is to be hoped that another year when winter does come that more will skate and snowshoe and ski, and have a thrill like this of

THE SKI RUNNER

Above you burns a molten-copper sun,
Before you hangs the imminent abyss,
Flaring in white,—a desperate game to run,
This frozen speedway to the deeps of Dis!
Now bend your heart and foot and spirit straight,
That none may shrink,
Then down, down, down the eagle takes his flight!
Sailing an instant on the wings of Fate,
An aeon poising on the utter brink,—
Then out! into a wilderness of light!

Women's Gymnastic Meet

This year, under the new management of Professor Walmsley and Miss James, the annual gym meet held as usual in Rand gym, on March 27, saw the initiation of a new system. Instead of the old-time endless drilling and apparatus work which was so tedious to both the spectators and the performers, those in attendance witnessed a program which left no doubt as to how one may have a good time in physical education.

With all those competing divided into two teams, the Garnets and the Blacks, the meet was decidedly of a most exciting nature to all those present. Everything was considered in the scoring of the three Senior women who were the judges, Betty Stevens, Betty Murray and Mig Morris. The winning team was to have its name painted on the skin so kindly presented by an alumnus of the class of 1912. The Blacks won the meet by a very slight margin as the score of 124-119 shows.

In between times, cheers from the rival teams reverberated through the hall to the accompaniment of the gesticulating cheer-leaders. A most interesting feature of the meet was the basketball game between the two teams which the Garnets won with a score of 17-8.

At the close of the meet, just before the judges' decision, individual awards were given to the fortunate ones who had earned them. A new loving cup was presented to the class of '30 for having won the most championships this past year, giving them a leg on the new two-year cup presented by last year's Seniors of the class of 1927.

The program was as follows:

CLINTON RAY THOMPSON, A.B.

After much thought and concentration, we feel that it is fitting that we should set apart a few pages of this book in dedication to that bristle-haired, lanky instructor who entered Bates for a second time with the Class of 1928, and who has been a constant source of consternation, perturbation, and probation to those unfortunates who have come within his grasp.

Many are the occasions within our recollection that he has shown an inexcusable leaning toward the realm of jokedom. His jokes may be timely or untimely, fitting or unfitting, nice or otherwise; in fact we feel that he is such a complete personification of all that the word "joke" may denote or connote that we humbly dedicate this section to Clinton Ray Thompson, A.B.; history instructor; coach; one-time athlete; and incorrigible sheik!

Faculty Fracas

(The scene is laid in the Bates Faculty Room, with the Professors and Administrative menials in attendance. President Clifton Daggett Gray is pounding viciously upon the table with a hammer filched from the Heating Plant by Goosey Chase.)

Prexy: Heah! Heah! Heah! The meeting will come to ordah! Coaches Thompson and Threlfall will please advawnce and seat themselves before the assemblage!

(The hubbub eventually subsides and Ray and Reggie slink to their respective chairs.)

Prexy: Dr. Whitehorne has a mattah of serious impawt to present for youah consideration. Doctor, the floah is youahs!

Willie: Mr. President and fellow professors: I have a most painful duty to perform to-day in laying before you a sitation that has caused no little reflection upon the integrity and moral uprightness of the Bates Faculty. Coaches Threlfall and Thompson have been accused of carrying the Dean of Women to her sanctum sanctorum in Rand Hall! Undoubtedly it was done with the best of intentions, but be that as it may, it was most unconventional; and the members of the faculty are requested to express their views on the significance of the action.

(Sammy Harms, with his right hand delicately concealing his nose, goes into a violent paroxysm of snorts, gurgles, and suppressed guffaws. Prexy casts a stony stare at the delinquent which strikes said delinquent on the head and subdues him. The Prex retrieves his stare for future use.)

Goosey Chase: What's that you say? In Rand Hall? My Gawd! And Raymond was such a deserving young man!

Dutchy: Well, of course I am only speaking advisedly, and I wouldn't want to be unfair to either of the young gentlemen; but as Chairman of the Publications Committee I feel that we should do everything possible to keep the matter out of print. I'm not saying there was anything wrong in what the men did; I merely want to clarify my understanding of the situation.

Percy: Well, I don't see why they should be given any consideration. I think they should get the bounce!

Lil' Eddie: "Bounce"? I don't know what you mean! Such a term is not on the indelible tablets of my mind.

Reggie (unable to contain hiuself): For cryin' out loud! What d'yuh babies think we lugged the Dean up three flights of stairs for? Well, I'll tell yuh: we wuz the only bozoes around and couldn't get out of it!

Ray (enthusiastically): Atta boy, Reggie, we weren't born yesterday!

Doc Mac: Now let's be careful,—let's be careful! We must think of the precedent we are establishing when we rule on this matter. And the student body must be considered; do you think the boys and girls didn't hear about it? Not so's you'd notice it!

Betty: Did you ever hear of a Dean being carried to her room before? If I had been in her place I would have punched them right in the eyebrows!

(The meeting is delayed by another "Harm"onic rhapsody which it takes two stony stares to quell.)

Halbert: Wayel, I daon't knaow; what does Emily Post say about it? I knaow I never carried Mis! Britan upstairs.

Prof. Rob: Well, Ruth must have acted her part beau-ootifully!

Ollie: I only have a few words to say; that is, -er, - well, these men were on their honor, but the student body was watching them—every minute: 'sawr-r-right men, 'sawr-r-right!

Doc Tubbs: To think of the Dean having two men in her room! Stu-upendous!

Harry: Mr. President, I move that the gentlemen concerned be instructed to pay for the plaster they knocked off the wall on their visit to Rand Hall.

Norm (snarls aggressively from behind Mrs. Picree): And they should pay for the varnish they wore off the floor with their hobnailed boots!

Karl: Whoopee! I have a reel of the whole darn procession. I will show it at Chase Hall tonight for the faculty. There will be a nominal admission fee of five cents.

Ray and Reggie: It's too bad they didn't shove you in the cooler the last time you showed a sport film.

Pussy: In Biblical days it wasn't men they used to carry the women around.

L'il Eddie: Well I should say! Now when I was in the U. S. Army—

Reggie (helping): Peeling potatoes at Bordeaux!

L'il Eddie: I'm afraid you are being wilfully antagonistic!

(Prexie pounds so energetically with hammer that it breaks in two. Ross grabs for notebook and makes notation to deduct $1.43 from Prexy's next pay check.)

Prexie: The Faculty, Coach Thompson and Coach Threfall, seems practically unanimous in deploring your rash conduct. Heah! Heah! Are you ready to vote on the question of removing the two gentlemen from their respective offices? I might add that such conduct was unheard of in Chicahgo!

Greasy: Just a moment, gentlemen, just a moment! Let us consider this from every possible angle. Have you considered these points: The Dean had to get to her room; there are no elevators in Rand Hall; "Ma" Roberts couldn't carry her all alone; Prexy had a back ache and couldn't officiate; and here's my biggest point, gentlemen—the faculty volleyball team would be ruined. Of course, gentlemen, we must not put undue emphasis upon athletics but the reputation of the Faculty must be preserved!

Freddie: Oh dear, dear, dear! It hasn't been made clear to me how I should vote. I really don't know how to vote!

(Sammy splutters violently and the Prex's stares make no impression. Prexy falls out of his chair and the room goes into an uproar. Rowe violently pleads the cause of his hammer; Karl finds his camera is missing, and it is noticed that Ray cautiously dives out the window while Reggie picks up a chair and mills a path to the door. Halbert attempts to figure out the psychological reason for the disturbance; Goosey holds his head crying, "Oh mummy, mummy, mummy!"; and Lil' Eddie, with his hand on his hip informs no one in particular that his interest in the meeting is ruined for the day. The room rapidly clears with only Prexy left, sitting on the floor.)

Prexy: Yaas indayd, this is certainly moah like Chicahgo!

Curtain

Dramatic Monologue

Why do I sit upon this bench, you ask,
And gaze with dreamy eyes upon this scene
So rich in youth and carefree gaiety?
Well, friend, although my eyes are slightly dimmed;—
And though my hand may tremble as I write;—
And though I may no longer stride these paths
With youth's red blood pulsating through my veins;—
I love to gaze upon these ivied walls
And live again the days that used to be.
Why yes, 'twas more than forty years ago
That first I trod these ne'er forgotten ways,
A member of the Class of 'Twenty-Eight.
Oh, yes; I find things greatly changed, all right.
The old must always make way for the new.
These paths were once of gravel, then of tar;
And now white streaks of concrete make the way
That leads to Coram and the Science Hall.
But that is insignificant compared
With many other changes that I find.
New buildings have sprung up on every side,
And how the good old faculty has changed!
Cliff Gray, (our Prexy, "may he rest in peace")
Was quite a noble man, you may believe

A witty brilliant diplomat;—not like
The present Prex who smokes his black cheroot
Within the precincts of our campus walls.
(We could not smoke upon the campus then)
We had a Women's Dean in those days, too,
Who was most careful of her charges health,
And was forever warning us against
The ravages of cigarettes and drink.
Then there was Eddie Wright, the English prof,—
It has been said he never flunked a soul,
But you can take that with a grain of salt!
Perc' Wilkins,—did you ever hear of him?—
The head of the Department, did you say?
Small wonder Bates has found it wise to drop
Collegiate athletics for a time!
But stay! Who is that trudging toward the gym?
It looks like Norman Ross;—but how he's aged!
And why those ragged overalls and shirt?
What's that you say,—he's lost his bursar's job
Because he tried to tax the President
For using thumb tacks on the office walls?
(Which makes me wonder if the dear old thing
Has ever found out why there's twenty men
That work their board at Dearborn's or at Bill's!)
They say Ray Thompson's in Augusta now,—
To bad he went stark crazy at his job.
There all his time is spent in fixing up
Excuse slips for the Class of 'Twenty-Eight.
And well do I remember Ollie Cutts
Whose fighting face was always to the fore
When clever supervision was the need.
And dear Prof Rob, who no one could forget,—
Left Bates to supervise a French ballet.
(He had the spirit of eternal youth!)
But you are bored with reminiscences
By one who lives so much within the past;
I guess I'll wander up to Parker Hall
I feel quite safe—now Bob McDonald's gone.
That little Scotchman tried to rule the roost,
And with Norm Ross's help had some success,
But he was mighty careful when alone.
Just one more thing,—where is this movie place
Where old Karl Woodcock shows his prize-fight films?
He's made a big success of it, I guess.
What did you say,—it's almost twelve o'clock?
I guess it's time that I were moving on
My hydroplane is on Lake Andrews now
And if I make it snappy, I have time
To get to Paris for the evening show.

1928 Class Superlatives

The Tallest Man: JOHN B. ALEXANDER

John has the unique distinction of being the only winner of a title that captured his title by a unanimous vote.

The Tallest Woman: ELIZABETH H. HALL

Betty was a close second to John's vote with only three votes opposed to her.

The Smallest Man: JACOB J. ARENSTAM

Jake polled a heavy vote to win the pygmy title of the Class. His ability is not in proportion to his size!

The Smallest Woman: CLARA F. PARNELL

Here is another example of a person that can be mighty as well as mighty little.

The Biggest Sleepy Head (Man): W. EVERETT WOOD

Mr. Wood has slept his way to a consistent victory over his nearest rival "Pat" McCurdy. We have not been able to awake "Ev" as yet to inform him of his victory.

The Biggest Sleepy Head (Woman): ELIZABETH J. STEVENS

Betty won by an eight vote margin over Annette Callaghan and consequently we give the latter honorable mention.

Class Grind (Man): FRANK H. GLAZIER

For four years Frank has kept his nose to the stone and although his features may be damaged, his persistence has been recognized.

Class Grind (Woman): CYTHERA COBURN

Man Orator: CHARLES H. GUPTILL

Charlie was practically a unanimous choice for this honor. His debating has been as accomplished as that of any Bates debater in many years.

Woman Orator: CLARA F. PARNELL

In winning the Orator title Clara scored her second victory of the day. She is a clever little tongue-wagger and a dangerous opponent.

Most Efficient Man: HOWARD S. WHITE

Howard has proved himself to be "Joe Business" of our class on countless occasions and nosed out his roommate, Walt Ulmer and Jimmy Burke who tied for second place.

Most Efficient Woman: MARGARET MORRIS

"Mig" romped to a fairly easy win in the efficiency contest with almost twice as many votes as the runner-up, "Cy" Coburn.

Class Vamp: ELLANOR HOWE

Ellanor evidently ran a hard race for three years and then rested on her laurels for she won the Vampire crown with comparative ease over Carolyn Merrill and Beth Ridings who raced neck and neck for second place.

Class Sheik: MAXWELL ARTHUR HEATHER WAKELY

Max, being accustomed to a rapid pace, managed to out-distance his nearest rivals, "Red" Oviatt and "Lief" Erickson, by a substantial margin.

Best Dressed Man: RALPH E. MCCURDY

"Pat" clinched the Beau Brummel title by a one vote margin over "Bill" Abbott and "Red" Oviatt, who tied for second place.

Best Dressed Woman: CAROLYN F. MERRILL

Best Man Athlete: MANFORD L. PALMER

Manny's versatility in three sports gave him a victory over "Lou" Foster by a slender margin.

Best Woman Athlete: MARGARET MORRIS

"Mig" took her second title of the day by crossing the tape ahead of "Pam" Leighton, who was a close second.

Wittiest Man: HERBERT W. OVIATT, JR.

"Red" Oviatt was adjudged to possess the cleverest tongue on the men's side of the campus with Wood, Duffen, and Guptill battling for second place.

Wittiest Woman: MARION E. CARLL

"Bunny" punned and joked her way to the "Wittiest" title over Kay Whitman by a margin of four votes.

Time Killer (Man): EDWARD I. ERICKSON

"Lief" and Ev Wood held a fierce loafing battle which the former won by a three vote margin.

Time Killer (Woman): OLIVE L. FLANDERS

We would like to know the secret of being adjudged the champion time killer and at the same time managing to be a brilliant student! Frances Nichols was defeated for premiere honors by only two votes and was, in turn, trailed by Annette Callaghan by the same margin.

Man Hater: BEATRICE E. LIBBY

For some unaccountable reason "Bee" has evidently acquired an aversion for men. Cythera Coburn and Miriam Morton were tied for second money and were only one vote behind the winner.

Woman Hater: JOHN F. DAVIS

John was far out in the lead in this contest with Ole Wandrup and Auburn Carr tied for second place. Jimmy Burke received one vote which the editors believe was his own!

Class Babies: ALFRED C. WEBBER AND OLIVE L. FLANDERS

"Al" and "Pop" were decreed to be the "Babes in the Wood".

Best Disposition (Man): HAROLD R. DUFFEN

"Duff's" ever-ready smile and laugh gave him the necessary prestige to win over Bill Abbott and Jimmy Burke, who furnished another tie for second honors.

Best Disposition (Woman): BEATRICE E. MILLIKEN

"Bee" and "Billy" Jones were far out in front of the rest of the field with "Bee" having a five vote advantage over her opponent.

Best Dancers: MAXWELL ARTHUR HEATHER WAKELY AND DOROTHY CARPENTER

We were going to suggest an exhibition by the winners of this competition but we fear the contrast in height would be too great. Max had a walk-a-way in his contest, while Dot had a one vote win over Charlotte Fuller.

Rand Hall Pest: STANLEY H. ROWE

Stanley waited until his Senior year to make his debut at Rand but has done nobly this year. His vote was terrific.

Biggest Lines: MAXWELL ARTHUR HEATHER WAKELY AND ELLANOR HOWE

This was Max's third victory of the day and he won by a substantial majority over Stahura who placed second. Ellanor defeated Carolyn Merrill by two votes.

Noisiest: KENNETH HUDSON AND ANNETTE CALLAGHAN

Hudson won a decisive victory over Walsh, while Annette barely defeated "Bee" Small by three votes.

Best Looking (Man): STANLEY H. ROWE

"Hypie's" noble countenance was not to be outdone and he conquered the field with Oviatt one vote behind and Peabbles two.

Best Looking (Woman): ELIZABETH HALL AND MARION DUNCAN

After a long and closely contested battle the ballots were counted and the contest declared a tie between Betty and Marion.

Most Popular Man: WALTER F. ULMER

Walt practically won a unanimous vote for the most popular man of the Class.

Most Popular Woman: PAMELIA LEIGHTON

Pam followed in Walt Ulmer's footsteps and was virtually a unanimous choice for the most popular girl.

Most Brilliant: JOHN B. ALEXANDER AND DANA INGLE

John barely nosed out Charlie Guptill for the honors on the men's side of the campus while Dana had a slightly easier victory over Kay Tubbs.

Most Talented Man: MAXWELL ARTHUR HEATHER WAKELY

Max hogged a fourth title when he came home ahead of Bill Abbott by six votes.

Most Talented Woman: MARION E. GARCELON

Marion's dramatic, scholastic, musical, and athletic ability earned her a victory as the most talented over Mig Morris and Billy Jones who were tied for second.

Best Handshakers: MAXWELL ARTHUR HEATHER WAKELY AND DANA L. INGLE

Max's fifth title was not such a pleasure to him we imagine but it was none the less decisive. Dana was clearly out in front of the procession as far as the women were concerned.

Happiest: HAROLD R. DUFFEN AND BEATRICE E. MILLIKEN

"Duff" and "Bee" took the honors together in a second contest and both were overwhelming victors.

Favorite Book: THE BIBLE

The Cut Book and THE MIRROR tied for second place.

Favorite Actor: CHAPLIN, NAVARRO AND BIGELOW

Favorite Actress: GRETA GARBO

Laura LaPlante and Clara Bow tied for second.

Most Popular Professor: Dr. Frank D. Tubbs

Favorite Song: ONWARD CHRISTIAN SOLDIERS

Most Popular Subject: CO-EDUCATION AND GEOLOGY

Tied for first place.

God's Good Man

Act I. Scene I. (In fact, the only act and scene).

Place: The Excuse Office—Athletic Building.

Time: Almost any old time.

The curtain rises, showing an office tastily decorated with pictures of C. Ray Thompson in various athletic outfits. On the right hand wall the 1912 football team scowls at you. The greatest collegiate end the State of Maine has ever seen, (C. Ray himself) peeks out from beneath a hedgehog bob. Directly opposite the greatest mandolin pounder (C. Ray himself) beams forth from above a winged collar.

As the curtain rises C. Ray is disclosed lowering his long legs from the desk. He stretches, reaches for his banjo, and begins to torment it. A sound like the breaking of dishes is heard. C. Ray sings, which is worse. At this point Mr. Shaw Taylor enters, looks frightened, but decides to remain.

C. Ray (with a pained expression): What! You here again!

Taylor (beaming): Yes, I am in a difficulty.

C. Ray: You would be. Did the Mechanic Falls car jump the track or did you just over-sleep?

Taylor: Oh, no-no-no-no! I failed to register on time and—

C. Ray (delightedly): You've lost your cuts; you've lost your cuts; I'm glad of it, I'm glad of it; you've lost your cuts,—

Taylor (loudly to drown out C. Ray's chant): But the registrar said that you could fix things up for me so that I could have them.

C. Ray: I could, but that's no sign that I'm going to! You've lost your—

Taylor (ominously): Well, all I've got to say is that you'll save yourself a lot of bother by fixing me up. Otherwise I'll be seeing you often this semester!

C. Ray (less enthusiastically): Well, yes; that's right too. Well, what's your excuse?

Taylor: I was working—

(C. Ray snickers, coughs, and goes into a choking spell. Taylor looks pained and acts as though he would like to aid C. Ray to choke.)

C. Ray: Working! ha, ha!! Do you think I was born yesterday? Working! (a series of snorts) —Say! (another series) Work! Ha! Ha! Ha! Ha! Well, fill out a slip, but mark my words, if I catch you in here again,— If I ever see you looking my way, I'll forget myself.

(Taylor leaves, and Dwight Walsh enters. Walsh coughs; C. Ray is startled, looks at Walsh and sighs deeply. Pushes the pad of excuse slips to the corner of the desk, and Walsh pounces upon it.)

C. Ray: What is it to-day? Eyes, ears, Penn Relays, Football trip, STUDENT or MIRROR? You always have a different one.

Walsh: Oh, all of them. Let me see,—seventeen cuts in chapel, eighteen in Biblical Literature, fourteen in Spanish, and eleven in Geography, and a few others I haven't looked up.

C. Ray: Do you think I was born yesterday? Say, some of you birds would make an angel swear!

Walsh (patting C. Ray on the arm): I'll let you borrow my Ford!

(C. Ray taps Walsh over the head with an Indian club, picks him up, lugs him over, and hangs him on Cutt's door knob.)

C. Ray: I knew that bird would chirp once too often. His Ford!—Let's me take it when the gas tank is empty and I look like a poor boob as I back it up a hill.

(A mob of students crash in.)

The Mob: I was sick! Had to meet an Uncle! Got to work at home! My Grandmother's sick! —

C. Ray: What do you guys think,—I was born yesterday? Get out of my sight—the whole bunch of you before my sweet temper becomes ruffled. (He grabs two Indian clubs.)

The Mob: Here comes Oviatt and Wood!

C. Ray (throwing excuse slips into the air): Fill 'em out, but hurry up and go out and tell those two lowly caterpillars I've gone to Dartmouth for a meeting of the Winter Sports Union.

(The Curtain drops as Wood and Oviatt arrive. They yell loudly for C. Ray, but all they hear is a loud shout.)

C. Ray: I've gone to Dartmouth!!

"Did you ever see anything more prosaic looking than a man's hat," a customer remarked recently, "and yet," he continued, "it has a whole background of romantic history behind it.

"Do you know why you lift your hat to a friend?" he queried. "It is simply following the custom of the medieval knight, who had a very real reason for doing it. When he approached a person with his helmet removed, he indicated that he considered this person his friend, or otherwise he would not have dared to expose himself to danger."
